
2023 Extemporaneous Speech Topics

Social media as a tool for creating a positive public image for agriculture: Myth or Reality?

How do we reduce our food waste from the farm to the fork?

Describe the challenges of attracting and retaining young professionals in agriculture in today's world.

Is Vertical Farming a sustainable solution for urban agriculture?

As an advocate for American agriculture, what are the top priorities that we must focus on today and why?

How can we bridge the gap between rural and urban communities in understanding agriculture?

In what ways can FFA members help to increase agricultural literacy among their peers and in their communities?

With a nationwide shortage of agriculture teachers, what can be done to encourage more students to pursue careers in ag education and fill these vacancies?

What role does Oklahoma agriculture play in the overall economy of the state and how can we ensure its continued success?

The agriculture community is facing significant challenges with regards to mental health issues and opioid abuse. What steps can the industry take to effectively address these pressing concerns?

Agroforestry: A promising solution for promoting biodiversity or just another fad?

Inflation at the supermarket: What causes food prices to soar?

Does enough money from the consumer get back to the farmer?

Identify and explain some of the most significant large agricultural machinery technology changes in recent years?

The effectiveness of Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) in supporting low-income families and vulnerable populations.

Farmers and ranchers face a persistent challenge with regards to labor. What strategies can they implement to obtain reliable labor for their operations?

What are the challenges of maintaining soil health and combating soil erosion in modern agriculture?

How has CRISPR technology changed the landscape of agricultural biotechnology and what are the potential implications for farmers and consumers?

The rise of AI in agriculture: What does it mean for the future of farming?

2023 Extemporaneous Speech Topics (continued)

How has immigration policies affected the agriculture industry and rural communities in the United States?

What are the top priorities for the 2023 Farm Bill and how will they impact farmers, ranchers, and the broader agricultural community?