SchoolSpeak's Gradebooks

SchoolSpeak's gradebooks were designed with the teacher in mind. Using a very simple interface the teacher may easily record a student's assessment on tests, projects, homework and other type of assignments. Because SchoolSpeak's gradebooks are online – teachers may access their gradebooks anywhere they have an internet connection.

Do I need a gradebook?

Gradebooks allow teachers to record student assessments and calculate overall grades. But more importantly, gradebooks show the student's progress – the student's journey in learning. In the past, many teachers especially in the earlier grades may have assessed a student as the end of the term based a number of factors. Today, teachers want to see that student's journey and identify the areas of both progress and concern so that the student is best supported based on his/her own needs. With SchoolSpeak's online gradebooks, teachers may enter assessments throughout the term so they can view the true progress of the students. Also, SchoolSpeak Administrators may allow teachers to add comments, and other grades such as effort/conduct in the gradebooks as well.

Gradebook data is not limited to 'just grades'. Teachers may also provide share additional information such as effort and conduct grades in preparation for the report card process.

But what about the specials teachers?

Often, teachers of specials such as Physical Education, Music and Art do not track assessments throughout the term, but just award a grade at the end of the term. In such cases, SchoolSpeak administrators may opt to allow the teacher to input the grade directly in the report card and do not need gradebooks. However, recent school trends show that Administrators are asking specials teachers to input the score into their gradebooks for easier administration and visibility.

Multiple sections of a subject (Levelling)

Schools often create multiple levelled sections of a particular subject such as math or reading to accommodate the individual needs of the students. The SchoolSpeak gradebooks can easily handle these requirements. The SchoolSpeak administrator can create levelled section groups and provide teachers with gradebooks for each levelled section making it easier for teachers to record each section's assessments.

Where do I find the gradebooks?

Gradebooks are typically added to the grade level groups such as 2nd grade, 5th and 8th grade under the Progress Report section. The gradebook location is usually based on the student homeroom group. Sometimes, gradebooks can be added to subject oriented class groups such as Algebra, Geometry and History although this is primarily in multi-sectioned middle school levels. Generally, for single classroom based K-8 schools or for groups where the students are primarily taught as a homeroom group, we recommend adding gradebooks to grade or homeroom groups so that you can access consolidated reports and it is easy for parents and students to access grades.

A Typical Classroom with Gradebooks Displayed.

The picture below shows a typical K-8 classroom group.

Working with the Gradebooks

To access a gradebook (also accessing an attendance book)

1. Go to the grade level group on the home page where the gradebooks are located. For example, the 4th grade teacher will find the gradebooks within the 4th grade group under the Progress Report header in the quick links section.
2. Locate the Progress Report section.

3. Locate the correct subject and click on the gradebook name to access it.
4. Click Gradebook on the top-right.

The gradebook page is displayed.

Overview of the Gradebook

The top menu of the gradebook provides teachers with powerful functionality.

The screenshot shows the main gradebook interface. ### Letter grade based

To calculate based on a letter grade:

1. Set the Input As field to Letter Grade
  - a. Enter the max score in the Max Points field
  - b. Enter the letter grade scored on the assignment by a student in the column to the right of their name.

Note: Each letter grade must be pre-configured within the Gradebook Letter grade score value settings to have an equivalent numeric value in order for the term grade to calculate correctly.

2. Click Save after all grades are entered.

Calculations based on letter grade are shown in:

- Term Summary - Click to view the current term's average achievement grades and to view, add, or modify standard grades, comments, conducts codes, or other fields as required.
- Student Summary - Click to view the average achievement scores for each term the student was graded.

Operations

The following operations help the teacher in easy data entering.

The screenshot shows a software interface for managing assignments. At the top, there are navigation buttons: 'Save', 'Save & Publish', 'Cancel', and links for 'Published Reports', 'View All', 'Edit All', 'Add', '1', and 'Assignments'. Below this is a form for 'Trimester 3 (02/02/16 - 06/01/16)' with fields for 'Date', 'Assignment', 'Category', 'Max Points', and 'Include in grade calculation'. A table below the form lists student grades with columns for '#ID', 'Student', 'Grade', 'Input as', 'Score', and 'Notes'. An 'Operations' menu is open over the table, listing actions: 'Delete assignment', 'Move assignment', 'Copy assignment', 'Duplicate assignment', 'Scale points', 'Curve assignment', and 'Copy from homework'. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'Save', 'Save & Publish', 'Recalculate standards', and 'Cancel'.

#ID	Student	Grade	Input as	Score	Notes
1	340586	Adrew, Gracie		94.1%
2	340729	Brown, Calvin		99%
3	464714	Brown, Larry		91.5%
4	340727	Cook, Kristyl		92.5%	23
5	340677	Parker, Winnie		90%	24
6	340679	Quinn, Martin		99.7%	25

8	340685	Selig, Edward		99.5%	24
9	340720	Villegas, Sophia		100%	25

You can use the Delete assignment link to delete the assignment from gradebook.

You can use the Move assignment link to move the assignment from one term to another term or gradebook. And if you move and save an assignment then a new link for that particular assignment is created.

If an assignment is already linked to homework and the logged in user does not have 'Edit' permission for that particular Homework resource and has 'Edit' permission to the gradebook, then the user can edit the gradebook but cannot link the homework to the gradebook.

Note 1: If you delete an assignment, it will be removed from both the Homework and the Gradebook resources.

Note 2: If you move an assignment from one term to another term or from one resource to another resource, if it is linked to homework, then the link to the homework also will be moved with the change in the due date.

You can use the Copy assignment link to copy the assignment from one term to another term or gradebook.

You can use the Duplicate assignment link to make a copy of the same assignment within the selected term or gradebook.

You can use the Scale points link to to convert the assignment max point and its corresponding percentage in case of change in the max point that gets reflected in the student point.

You can use the Curve assignments link to change the student points based on particular ratio.

You can use the Copy from homework link to copy an assignment from homework resource.

Progress Reports

Progress reports allow teachers to share the progress of the students with the parents. Progress reports are snapshots in time – a view of the student performance to date. SchoolSpeak administrators should work with their school faculty to determine the schedule of issuing progress reports. Some common options include – weekly, biweekly, after major tests or a few times within a term. Progress reports are not mandatory – the decision to publish is based on the school’s preferences. Schools may opt to ask parents to sign off on the progress reports or may decide to track the parent view time/date.

SchoolSpeak administrators also have the option of publishing the progress reports centrally from the Manage Gradebook Administrative tool. Centrally publishing progress reports allows the administrators to control the frequency of publication as well as which grades/subjects that should be published.

Each gradebook may have its own customized version of the progress report. The format may be left at the teacher’s discretion or the SchoolSpeak administrator in conjunction with school officials may help to develop recommended formats for the reports. A more standardized version of the report is beneficial to parents as it presents a common format of information reducing possible parent stress when viewing multiple reports at one time.

The teacher view

Teachers may view the progress report of all of the students in the classes that they teach, while a parent will be restricted to viewing progress reports for the students in their family. The ‘teacher’ is based on the edit permission on the gradebook admin page. Please see gradebook setup for more information.

A Discussion of Achievement Grading Calculation Methods

Traditional grading

SchoolSpeak's Gradebook resource supports traditional scoring methods. You may choose to use a variety of grade calculation methods such as total points earned to category weight or assignment. You may record scores as a percentage, in terms of points or as a letter grade.

The gradebooks are configurable based on your teacher's needs and requirements. Administrators may change the settings at any time to reflect changes to curriculum or school policy - teachers and administrators may change the Gradebook configuration options at any time.

Standard based grading

The use of standard based grading is everywhere. Perhaps your school has adopted common core or maybe you have created a set of standards or skills that you use to evaluate the progress of your students. Maybe your school has a mix of evaluation criteria – kindergarten students are evaluated on the child's mastery of specific skills and your middle school students are evaluated based on traditional scoring methods.

SchoolSpeak's gradebooks work with standards either alone without achievement scores or in combination – all in the same gradebook!

Schools may elect to score just standards or a combination of standards and grades in what SchoolSpeak refers to as the hybrid mode. The following section will present a high-level overview of how to work in hybrid mode. For more information about standard based grading, please contact support or refer to the standards based gradebook information.

Gradebook Permissions Setup – Special Gradebook Considerations

Each resource in SchoolSpeak is governed by a set of resource permissions. Permissions refer to the ability of a member to view, edit, and manage a resource. As you create a new resource, you have the option to customize who may view, modify and manage the resource. When working with gradebooks these permissions have a more detailed effect. There are three levels of permission.

- View - Identifies the student who appear in the gradebook and parents who may view their student’s progress reports.
- Edit - Add members who can post/edit the resource content – typically the teacher who is teaching the class.
- Admin - Add members who can operate this page, i.e. modify the resource permission list.

When a resource is added, the admin list is usually set to group administrators. By default, system administrators have access to all the resources.

To view or modify the resource permissions:

1. Click the resource or gradebook
2. Click the Admin link in the toolbar across from the group name.

3. Locate Modify resource permissions section to add/modify the permissions.

Modify Resource Permission:

View: Included Groups: Edit

Edit: Included Members: Edit
Romo, Chris
Included Groups:
View All Grades

Admin: Included Members: Edit
Romo, Chris

To add or change the list of members listed, click EDIT. Typically when setting the gradebook view permission, SchoolSpeak recommends using groups either grade groups or leveled section groups. The edit permission should list only the teacher who is teaching the subject.

To remove a member or group from the list, locate the member or group name in the Included Members or Included Groups list and click [Remove] next to the member or group name.

Add a New Gradebook

You can use the Click to add a new resource link on the Update Group Details page of the respective group to create a single gradebook at a time.

Note: If your school uses standards, please contact SchoolSpeak Support for assistance in creating new gradebooks.

Add class

You can use the Admin tool, Add Class to create a common gradebook and homework resources for students of two different groups such as 7th and 8th Grades who share a common Gradebook. For example, a Spanish gradebook for students who attend the same Spanish class from 7th and 8th Grades.

1. Enter the name and description for the group.

2. Select the followings:
  - a. Create – The resource type. In this case, you need to select Gradebook.
  - b. Add quick links under – The groups in which you would like this resource to be present (7 and 8).
  - c. Include students in – In this case, select Create a group for this class or choose a previously created sectioned group.
  - d. Teachers with edit permission – Select the teachers to whom you want to give edit permission for this resource.

The screenshot shows the 'Add Class [Permissions]' form. The 'Name' field contains 'Spanish' and the 'Description' field also contains 'Spanish'. In the 'Create' section, the 'Gradebook' checkbox is checked. In the 'Add quick links under' section, checkboxes for '7' and '8' are checked. In the 'Include students in' section, the 'Create a group for this class' checkbox is checked. A dropdown menu for 'Teachers with edit permission' is open, displaying a list of names: Draudt, Mary Ann; Franklin, Mel; Gengler, Ryan (highlighted); Harris, Joe; Jo Lynn, Brown; Jura, Aaron; Larsen, Louise; Maitland, Margie; Smith, Gary; and Stephen, Mary. At the bottom of the form are 'Create' and 'Cancel' buttons.

3. Click Save.

Classes that Span Multiple Homerooms or Grade Levels

Often schools may have a class that combines students from multiple homerooms or grade levels. SchoolSpeak easily handles this kind of setup using linked gradebooks. The teacher will have a single gradebook that exists in multiple homerooms or grade levels. The teacher may choose the gradebook from any location and enter grades. The parents of the students will be able to access the progress report for their student within the homeroom of the student. It is important to note that when creating a new gradebook, the SchoolSpeak Administrator will create only one gradebook and then link it within the admin settings of the resource to the other grade groups.

Progress Reports and Report Cards

The progress reports present a snapshot of students' performance and progress on various assignments whereas the Report Card is typically the more formal end of term report. You will use the group report card resource to create and publish report cards in school, district or diocesan format on SchoolSpeak. You can print or publish and have parents sign online or both. The report card can automatically pull data from the gradebook and attendance books.
