Using Your Words:

go, gone, went

Go is the present tense (the action of "going" is happening now)
Went is the past tense (the action has already happened)
Gone is the past tense which is used after the following words
(have, had, has, is, or any form of be).

Fill in the blanks using go, goes, going, went or gone.

1. The baby _____ to sleep an hour ago.

2. They are _____ to the airport soon.

3. Where have my keys _____?

4. Alan _____ to school on the bus.

5. Let's _____ fishing tomorrow.

6. We used to _____ sailing on weekends.

7. Allison _____ to the party by herself.

8. We have already _____ to the store.

9. Do you want to _____ shopping with me?