

POINTS OF INTEREST

- 1 MARSHALL STUDENT CENTER (MSC)
 With a food court, pharmacy, credit union, event space and more, the 230,000-square-foot MSC is the heart of campus.
- 2 USF BOOKSTORE (BKS)
 This is your destination for convenient café pick-me-ups, USF gear and, of course, your books.
- 3 STUDENT SERVICES (SVC)
 Your one stop for a multitude of needs: Office of Admissions, Office of International Admissions, Office of Financial Aid, the Cashier's Office, Office of the Registrar, Career Services, Counseling Center and Student Accessibility Services.
- 4 LIBRARY (LIB)
 The Writing Center, more than 800 databases and 1.3 million books are available to support your studies.
- 5 RECREATION CENTER (REC)
 With more than 28,000 square feet of dedicated fitness space, Campus Recreation offers countless ways to break a sweat. This includes basketball, swimming, group fitness classes and much more.
- 6 JOHN AND GRACE ALLEN BUILDING (ALN)
 With its central location, ALN is the convenient home to both the Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Equal Opportunity and Office of Veteran Success.
- 7 INTERDISCIPLINARY SCIENCES BUILDING (ISA)
 At seven stories tall, ISA offers a stunning view for visitors meeting to begin their campus tour. It also houses the departments of physics; cell biology, microbiology and molecular biology; and chemistry.
- 8 JUDY GENSHAFT HONORS COLLEGE (JGHC)
 The brand new, 85,000-square-foot Judy Genshaft Honors College is a state-of-the-art facility where students can study and thrive in a tight-knit community.

TO SEE MORE MAPS,
visit our website

Health Services	Athletics
Academics	Residence Halls