BUDDIES

Take me home
& read to me!

Please take me home &
read to me!

I'm your little Reading Buddy.
I'm quiet as can be.
I will listen carefully
as you read to me.
Read to me anytime,
and anywhere you can.
You will soon find out that I am your biggest reading fan!

Instructions:

A Reading Buddy is a silent, non-judgmental reading partner for young readers {Students can also be reading buddies to each other.} A Reading Buddy encourages young readers to read aloud, building fluency.

Reading Buddy tags are designed to be printed and attached to Reading Buddies (typically small toy animals). Simply punch a hole through the circle in the upper left-hand corner of each tag, and string ribbon, yarn, or thread through it to attach it to the Reading Buddy.

I've also included a printable to label the container where you keep Reading Buddies.

You can have the Reading Buddies be something the students use in class, choosing one and then returning it, yet these tags are designed for ones kids take home to keep, reading to them there.

If you are looking for places to find inexpensive Reading Buddies, your local dollar store most likely has possibilities for you. The pictures you see on this page are of animals currently available at Dollar Tree. {Remember that if you order online, you can have a whole case shipped to your closest store at no extra charge.}

Reading Buddies don't need to be stuffed animals - you can use rubber snakes if you want!

It can be fun to have an assortment from which kids can choose.

Have fun!

Lisa
