* The Coast Guard is under the Department of Homeland Security during peacetime. During times of war, command is transferred to the Navy.

+ Reserve refers to ready reserves; stand-by and retired reserves not included.

‡ During peacetime, state governors oversee the National Guard. The President may activate the National Guard to participate in federal missions. The Air National Guard provides tactical airlift, air refueling tankers, general purpose fighters, rescue and recovery, weather flights, strategic airlift, special operations capabilities, and medical evacuation units. The Army National Guard may be called into action during local or statewide emergencies, such as storms and civil disturbances.

§ Data based on the 2010 census. The number of WWII veterans is quickly dwindling. Most are in their 80s and the VA estimates 600–1,000 die every day, making the number of living veterans in 2012 about 1.2 million.
