ABC announced its 2023-2024 fall primetime schedule today, featuring a solid lineup of original programming every night with network staples and fan-favorite unscripted series. The network continues to deliver on its success as the season's No. 1 entertainment network among Adults 18-49 for the fourth season in a row. ABC ranked or tied as the No. 1 entertainment network on 18 of the 33 weeks of the season to date, marking more weekly wins with entertainment programming than any other network. In fact, the network also delivered the longest winning streak of the season to date, ranking or tying for No. 1 on 12 consecutive weeks.

"We are proud to be home to beloved series and meaningful narratives that audiences continue to embrace, and we're fortunate that our solid, stable roster continues to leverage the enormous success of our established hits, with originals airing every night of the week," said Craig Erwich, president, Disney Television Group.

The network is leaning into its incomparable unscripted slate, with "Dancing with the Stars" making history once again by becoming the first series to broadcast live across multiple platforms on Monday nights followed by the highly anticipated premiere of "The Golden Bachelor." Star-studded game shows "The $100,000 Pyramid," "Celebrity Jeopardy!," "Celebrity Wheel of Fortune" and "Press Your Luck" as well as the 15th season of multi-Emmy® Award-winning "Shark Tank" and the sophomore season of "Judge Steve Harvey" return. "Bachelor in Paradise" takes over Tuesdays to satisfy everyone's guilty pleasure. Sundays are all about family, featuring all-new episodes of "America's Funniest Home Videos" paired with beloved movies from "The Wonderful World of Disney." Additionally, encore airings of Emmy Award-winning phenomenon "Abbott Elementary" will air this fall. ABC News' "What Would You Do?," which ran for an impressive 15 seasons, also makes its return to primetime reintroducing the iconic hidden camera show to new and returning audiences.

Timing for previously announced renewals and pickups, including “9-1-1,” “Abbott Elementary,” “American Idol,” “The Bachelor,” “The Conners,” “The Good Doctor,” “Grey’s Anatomy,” “High Potential,” “Not Dead Yet,” “The Rookie,” “Station 19,” and “Will Trent” will be announced at a later date.

Fall premiere dates will be announced soon.

Show description for new series “The Golden Bachelor” is below.

THE GOLDEN BACHELOR

After more than 20 years of fostering young love on “The Bachelor,” “The Bachelorette” and “Bachelor in Paradise,” “The Golden Bachelor” showcases a whole new kind of love story – one for the golden years. On this all-new unscripted series, one hopeless romantic is given a second chance at love in the search for a partner with whom to share the sunset years of life. The women arriving at the mansion have a lifetime of experience, living through love, loss and laughter, hoping for a spark that ignites a future full of endless possibilities. In the end, will our Golden man turn the page to start a new chapter with the woman of his dreams?

“The Golden Bachelor” is produced by Warner Bros. Unscripted Television in association with Warner Horizon.
