

Agenda 21 Population Control Map for USA

Posted on November 17, 2013 by Dr. Eowyn

Agenda 21 is an action plan of the United Nations related to “sustainable development” and was an outcome of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in 1992, where 178 governments (including the United States) voted to adopt the program. The number 21 refers to an agenda for the 21st Century. It is a comprehensive blueprint of action to be taken globally, nationally, and locally by organizations of the UN, governments, and major groups in every area in which humans directly affect the environment.

THIS IS WHAT OUR OVERLORDS HAVE PLANNED FOR US:

As Mandated by the Convention on Biological Diversity, The Wildlands Project, UN and US Man and Biosphere Program, and Various UN, US Heritage Programs, and NAFTA Mapping for the area East of the Mississippi and South of the Ohio Rivers is at various stages of completion

Color Key:

RED: Core Reserves and Corridors – Little to no human use.

YELLOW: Buffer Zones – Highly Regulated Use.

TURQUOISE: Normal Use Zones of Cooperation.

ORANGE: Border 21/La Paz Sidebar Agreement of NAFTA. 124 mile wide International Zone of Cooperation.

PINK: Indian Reservations.

GRAY: Military Reservations.

BLACK DOTS: Cities over 10,000 people.

Some major highways and Interstate rivers are also shown.

Taken from the United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity Article ??,* United Nations Global Diversity Assessment Section 13.4.2.2.5. US Man and the Biosphere Strategic Plan. UN, US Heritage Corridor Program. “The Wildlands Project,” Wild Earth 1992. Also see Science “The High Cost of Biodiversity,” 25 June 1993 pp 1963 to ?? and the Border 21 Sidebar of NAFTA. The very high percentage of buffer zone in the West is due to the very high percentage of federal land.

From Wikipedia:

The implementation of Agenda 21 was intended to involve action at international, national, regional and local levels. Some national and state governments have legislated or advised that local authorities take steps to implement the plan locally, as recommended in Chapter 28 of the document. These programs are often known as ‘Local Agenda 21’ or ‘LA21’. For example, in the Philippines, the plan is ‘Philippines Agenda 21’ (PA21).

In the United States [...] a few state and local governments have considered or passed motions and legislation opposing Agenda 21. In [...] 2012 the Republican National Committee drafted a resolution opposing Agenda 21, calling it “a comprehensive plan of extreme environmentalism, social engineering, and global political control.”

The United States REJECTED Agenda 21 Almost 30 Years Ago.

Conspiracy promoter, Deborah Tavares of Sebastopol, California falsely claims that Agenda 21 is a U.N scheme which will drive us out of our rural and suburban homes and into tightly-packed, over-populated "Kill Cities" in furtherance of the planned extinction of mankind. But, none of this is so.

Agenda 21 is a non-binding suggestion that the United Nations made to all its member nations in 1992. Under the United States Constitution, both the President and the Senate must agree to a proposed treaty or convention before it becomes law in the United States. While the President symbolically signed Agenda 21, the Senate withheld its consent to Agenda 21.

As a result, the United States government rejected Agenda 21 almost 30 years ago. That means Agenda 21 never even applied in the United States. So, whatever Agenda 21 "would have done" in the United States is completely irrelevant. The so-called "Agenda 21 Map" is entirely fake and had nothing to do with Agenda 21 in the first place. Instead, the fake "Agenda 21 Map" was an exaggeration created to artificially generate U.S. opposition to "The U.N. Treaty On Bio-Diversity" (something entirely different from Agenda 21). As it turned out, the United States also rejected The U.N. Treaty On Bio-Diversity. So, neither Agenda 21 nor The U.N. Treaty On Bio-Diversity (which the fake Agenda 21 Map actually illustrated) ever applied in the United States.

Deborah Tavares has always known the truth about Agenda 21 and the Agenda 21 Map. But, the truth about Agenda 21 does not incite the fear, hatred and violence that Deborah Tavares seeks to incite in the American people. So, she concocted the Agenda 21 hoax in order to incite the fear, hatred and violence that she seeks to incite in the American people..

The full implementation of Agenda 21, the Programme for Further Implementation of Agenda 21 and the Commitments to the Rio principles, were strongly reaffirmed at the World Summit on Sustainable Development (WSSD) held in Johannesburg, South Africa from 26 August to 4 September 2002. The UN has never reversed their support so it is still a goal of theirs.
