

Spanish Websites for Kids

1. Click here for a link to 123 Teach Me
This is a great site with pronunciation guides (audio), flashcards, videos, songs, lyrics, and more. For vocabulary in particular, check out these flashcards.
2. Click here for a link to SpanishDict
Here you can find interactive flashcards to teach kids the Spanish words for colors, clothing, numbers, and more!
3. Click here for a link to Digital Dialects
This site is full of fun, easy-to-play games that teach Spanish grammar, vocabulary, and conversation skills. The Spanish games cover a wide range of topics, including greetings, colors, numbers, foods, units of time, animals, and clothing.
4. Click here for a link to Salsa
This is a children's TV show that is free to watch online. It's all in Spanish, but it includes a translation of each episode. There are also a few games and activities for kids to play.
5. Click here for a link to BBC's Mi Vida Loca
Mi Vida Loca is another free Spanish TV show, but it's meant for older kids. The series includes lessons and learning activities, as well as a teacher's guide and syllabus to follow.
6. Click here for a link to Rockalingua
This subscription-based site also offers a lot of free content, including songs, videos, games, and picture dictionaries.
7. Click here for a link to Online Free Spanish
This site is full of resources in Spanish from level one up to advanced. It includes songs, vocabulary, and grammar lessons.
8. Click here for a link to Spanish Town
This site has several different activities to learn Spanish, including crosswords, word finders, tests, and lessons in vocabulary and grammar.
9. Click here for a link to Spanish Playground
This site includes vocabulary lessons, songs, printables, crafts, activities, books, and more.
10. Click here for a link to BookBox
Bookbox offers online books available in different languages. Your kids can build reading and listening skills while they listen to stories with Spanish subtitles.
11. Click here for a link to Calico Spanish
Calico Spanish is a wonderful resource for elementary Spanish curriculum. In addition to their classroom and homeschool materials, they offer free online Spanish videos via YouTube.
12. Click here for a link to PBS Kids
Noah is the protagonist of the PBS Kids digital series Oh Noah! The series is designed to introduce children ages four through seven to Spanish in an entertaining way.
13. Click here for a link to Story Place
Toggle over to the Spanish version of the site for books and activities in Spanish.
14. Click here for a link to Spanish Simply
This blog, written by an elementary Spanish teacher, has some great ideas for activities that work for in-home practice as well!
15. Click here for a link to BBC
This BBC site features vocabulary lessons, games, videos, photos, and songs.
16. Click here for a link to Hello World Spanish
This website has more than 700 free Spanish games and activities, including logic puzzles, matching games, and bingo.

Fluent in Spanish? The following websites offer games and activities for kids- but they're all in Spanish, so you'll need to know how to speak it yourself!

1. Click here for a link to 9 Letras
This is a blog by Alberto Abarca Fill at of Huesca, Spain. Alberto shares his free elementary Spanish resources, along with several printable activities for young Spanish learners.
2. Click here for a link to Pakapaka
This site features activities, games, videos, stories, printables, and tongue-twisters!
3. Click here for a link to Make Beliefs Comics
Have some ideas for what you want to teach your kids? Use these blank comic templates to create your own lessons!
4. Click here for a link to Educapeques
This site offers exercises categorized by grades and subjects.
5. Click here for a link to Proble+
Math word problems are excellent reading comprehension practice! Proble+ (pronounced problemas) offers engaging online games that combine Spanish reading comprehension and basic math skills.
6. Click here for a link to Chile Crece Contigo
Created by the Chilean government, this site offers online games for preschoolers. The games are an excellent introduction to preschool vocabulary and concepts for Spanish language-learners.
7. Click here for a link to Manualidades con Ninos
This is the Spanish companion site to SimpleKidsCrafts, featuring hundreds of short tutorials for simple crafts with Spanish audio. Try having your kids watch a video and translate the Spanish, then use the language you heard while completing the craft.
8. Click here for a link to Discovery Familia
This is the Spanish version of Discovery Family offers videos, games, and printable activities in Spanish.
9. Click here for a link to Chillola
Learning Spanish is easy here with lots of games (with audio) and free printable resources for parents.
10. Click here for a link to Disney
Check out the Spanish version of Disney's official website to play a variety of games and watch video clips!
11. Click here for a link to El Abuelo Educa
This is a great site to learn Spanish, with lessons and games categorized by topics (math, geography, etc.).
12. Click here for a link to Enchanted Learning
This site features fun activities, printables, and a vocabulary builder.