This note ran in a box below the clues:
Beginning today, The New York Times inaugurates a puzzle page. There will be two puzzles each Sunday -- one with a flavor of current events and general information, and one varied in theme, ranging from puzzles in a lighter vein, like today's smaller one, to diagramless puzzles of a general nature.
Readers are invited to contribute their puzzles. Payment will be made for each puzzle accepted. The pattern of the larger puzzles should be 23 by 23 squares; the smaller 15 by 15
