

Process Engineer

Description:

Doubletree Paper Mills is located in Gila Bend, AZ and manufactures a variety of tissue paper for its numerous costumers in the Southwest. The company is growing and looking for talented individuals looking to make a career in tissue manufacturing.

Job Responsibilities:

- Exercise 100% environmental and safety compliance
- Provide engineering expertise for process design, system optimization, quality control , commissioning & start-up, and trouble-shooting of paper machine systems
- Develop and implement technical training programs for the machine operators and lab technicians
- Evaluate chemical vendor's proposals and co-ordinate chemical trials for improving paper manufacturing
- Perform routine process testing and communicate results to the operations and management team
- Ability to learn function block logic troubleshooting in a DCS system
- Work with operations and maintenance team to identify and implement process modifications that lead to improved safety, quality, costs, and efficiency

Knowledge / Skills:

- Effective communication and computer skills
- Excellent problem solving and people management skills
- Ability to work under pressure and manage multiple tasks
- Process water and paper testing procedures
- Excellent knowledge in Mass, Heat and Energy balance

Educational Qualification:

- Requires a minimum of a Bachelors degree in Chemical Engineering or Pulp and Paper Engineering

Preferred:

- Advanced degree in Chemical Engineering or Pulp and Paper Engineering
- Two years relevant work experience in a manufacturing environment

Salary & Benefits to Be Discussed to Qualified Applicants.

E-mail Samir@doubletreepapermills.com with your resume or if you need more information