INTRODUCTION

Congratulations, you have chosen to take an active role in Colorado’s governance. Civic engagement is critical to the health of our democratic system. This office seeks to create a user-friendly process for public office candidates in accordance with the laws passed by the legislature. Maintaining the integrity of the system through a fair and transparent process is our primary goal.

This publication contains the information necessary for those seeking federal or state office in Colorado – basic facts on everything from qualifications for office to how to get on the ballot. If you are seeking information on running for president or vice president or RTD board of directors, please see the candidate information guides for president and vice president or RTD directors, as this publication does not address running for these offices. If you are seeking information on how to run for county or municipal office, see your county clerk and recorder or municipal election official.

We recommend that you use this guide in conjunction with Colorado statute and our website at www.coloradosos.gov. On our website you will find ballot access forms and campaign finance information, including TRACER, which assists candidates in filing campaign finance documents.

I hope this publication will be helpful and informative as you pursue your quest.

STEP 2: ANNOUNCE YOUR CANDIDACY

FEDERAL CANDIDATES

If you are running for a federal office, contact the Federal Election Commission at 1-800-424-9530 or www.fec.gov for information about announcing your candidacy and reporting donations and expenditures. Federal candidates do not file campaign finance documents with the state of Colorado.

STATE CANDIDATES

You will need to become familiar with the requirements of Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution (Campaign and Political Finance), Title 1, Article 45, C.R.S. (Fair Campaign Practices Act), and Campaign Finance rules. Call the Campaign Finance staff in the Elections Division of the Secretary of State's office at 303-894-2200 (dial 3, then 1) with any questions.

Q: When do you officially become a candidate for state office for campaign finance purposes?

A: A person is a candidate for election if the person has publicly announced and thereafter has received a contribution or made an expenditure in support of his/her candidacy.

Q: What forms do I file once I become a candidate?

A: You must file on-line a candidate affidavit with the Secretary of State's office within 10 calendar days of becoming a candidate. When completing the candidate affidavit on-line, you will be asked if you wish to accept voluntary spending limits (VSL). Please review the law carefully before accepting VSL as it is irrevocable except in very limited circumstances. Within 10 calendar days of filing the candidate affidavit, you must submit a personal financial disclosure form to the Secretary of State's office.

Q: I will not be accepting contributions or spending my own money on my campaign. Is there anything else I have to file?

A: No. You may file a voluntary report in order to provide full public disclosure.

Q: I will not be accepting contributions, but I will be spending my own money on my campaign. How do I report my expenditures?

Candidates who do not accept contributions, but spend their own money must file disclosure reports reporting all expenditures and itemizing expenditures of $20 or more. Candidates will file these reports via TRACER, a web-based campaign finance reporting tool.

Q: I will be accepting contributions and spending money on my campaign. How do I report these?

A: You are required to form a candidate committee. Through your candidate committee, you will be required to file reports regularly. The web-based campaign finance reporting tool, TRACER, will assist you in completing these reports.

Q: I am a write-in candidate. Do I have to report contributions and expenditures?

A: Yes. The same campaign finance rules apply to on-ballot and write-in candidates.

Q: Are there filings due after the election?

A: Yes. Your candidate committee must continue to file until it affirmatively terminates with a zero-fund balance. A candidate committee that has an open complaint against them may not terminate until the complaint is resolved/closed. Standalone candidates (candidates without a committee) may need to file a report after the election if unreported expenditures have been made. Also, officeholders are required to annually update their personal financial disclosures on or before the 10th of January, and to report all gifts and honoraria on a quarterly schedule. For more information on these filings or when a candidate committee must terminate, please contact Campaign Finance Support.

Q: Once I have declared my candidacy, can I change my mind?

A: Yes. On the Secretary of State's Ballot Access Forms page, complete the withdrawal form and submit it to the Secretary of State's office. Filing a withdrawal form does not release the candidate from campaign finance filing obligations. Contact Campaign Finance to learn how to terminate candidate committees.

Q: What is my personal liability as a candidate?

A: Please read Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution, Sections 9 (Duties of the secretary of state – enforcement) and 10 (Sanctions); and 1-45-111.5 (Duties of the secretary of state – enforcement – sanctions – definitions) C.R.S. very carefully before you file as a candidate or register a candidate committee. You may find these and all the Campaign Finance Rules in the Colorado Campaign and Political Finance Manual which is available on TRACER.

STEP 3: BALLOT ACCESS

This section contains general information on how to access the ballot as a candidate. If you are running for a particular office, go to the printable information packets page and review the specific ballot access options for each office.

There are 4 main ways for a candidate to access the ballot in Colorado:

- Political Party Candidate Nomination
- Political Party Candidate Petition
- Unaffiliated Candidate Petition
- Write-in Affidavit

POLITICAL PARTY CANDIDATE NOMINATION:

- To be eligible for nomination by a political party, a candidate must be registered as affiliated with that party no later than the first business day of January of the election year, unless party rules state otherwise. [1-4-601(4)(a); 1-4-1304(2)(b), C.R.S.]

- Candidates are required to contact their state political party and provide notice of their candidacy at least 30 days before the party assembly is held. Contact the state political party for information about assembly dates and time, party protocols, campaign rules, etc. [1-4-601(1.5), C.R.S.]
- Candidates who wish to gain ballot access through the party assembly must receive at least 30% of the votes cast by assembly delegates present and voting for that specific office at the party assembly. [1-4-601(2); 1-4-1304(1.5)(b)(II), C.R.S.]
- Major party candidates nominated by assembly are placed on the primary election ballot. [1-4-601(1), C.R.S.]
- Minor party candidates nominated by assembly are placed on the general election ballot unless there is more than one candidate from the same minor party nominated for the same office by assembly or petition; then the candidates are placed on the primary ballot. [1-4-1304, C.R.S.]
