

THE WORD WITHIN THE WORD

LIST #28

◉	mob	(move)	mobile, immobile, mobility	Latin
◉	sess	(sit)	session, obsessed, inessorial	Latin
◉	fic	(make)	fiction, horrific, prolific	Latin
◉	nounce	(tell)	pronounce, announce, enunciate	Latin
◉	andro	(man)	androgynous, android, androgens	Greek
◉	an-	(without)	anemia, anarchy, anaerobic	Greek
◉	ab	(away)	abnormal, absent, abrupt	Latin
◉	mel	(song)	melody, melodrama, melodious	Greek
◉	aden	(gland)	adenoid, adenine, adenoma	Greek
◉	aer	(air)	aerobic, aerosol, malaria	Greek

THE WORD WITHIN THE WORD

SENTENCES #28

- When the National Guard was mobilized, the mobile units were ready.
- Dozens of chairs were arranged for the general session.
- Is that wall supposed to be for beautification or fortification?
- Pronounce your announcement clearly.
- The metal android grappled with the furry anthropoid.

THE WORD WITHIN THE WORD

SENTENCES #28

- The anarchist had a severe case of anemia.
- The absentee landlord was abruptly abducted.
- The melodeon played a sappy melody during the melodrama.
- The adenovirus was discovered in his adenoids.
- The pilot studied aeronautics and aerodynamics.

MYSTERY QUESTIONS #28

1. Are anaerobic bacteria found primarily in windy places?

No, anaerobic bacteria thrive without (an) air (aer).

2. Has a kidnapping victim been abducted?

Yes, the victim has been lead (duct) away (ab).

3. Would a teacher like you to pronounce your words clearly?

YES!! 😊