Community Caring

The Hunt family has made corporate citizenship and charitable giving a priority for the Kansas City Chiefs. Those efforts focus on organizations and programs which improve the civic climate in the region, support families and children in crisis, improve health and wellness among children as well as preserve the legacy and history of the game of football. One way the organization supports these efforts is through the Chiefs Community Caring Team. This group includes members from the entire Chiefs organization who participate in community outreach efforts throughout the year. It consists of not only Chiefs players but also the Chiefs Women’s Organization, KC Wolf, Chiefs Cheerleaders, Chiefs Red Coaters, Chiefs Ambassadors and other alumni as well as Chiefs executives and staff members.

For more information about the Chiefs Community Caring Team, please visit www.chiefs.com/community.

Donations

The Chiefs are proud to support non-profit organizations and charitable fundraisers within the two-state region of Kansas and Missouri. Due to the high number of requests received, the Chiefs are unable to make other out-of-state donations. Charitable donations are strictly limited to Chiefs articles. Requests for monetary contributions or tickets are not accepted. The non-profit organization must be a 501 (c) (3) charity, a school or a church. Non-profit organizations must include their federal tax ID number. Without a tax ID number, we will be unable to consider the request.

- Chiefs donations are limited to Missouri and Kansas.
- All requests for donated items must be made at least six (6) weeks in advance of an event.
- The Chiefs only donate one item per year per organization.
- The Chiefs do not sponsor businesses or family reunions.

The Kansas City Chiefs use an online donation request process. Please click on the link below that will take guests to the Kansas City Chiefs Donation Guidelines page. Once the guidelines have been reviewed and if the organization meets the required criteria, access the online form to complete and submit a request. We require donation requests to be submitted at least six weeks in advance of the fundraising event date. Note that if an attachment is submitted along with a donation request, the file must be no larger than 4 MB. Please visit <https://www.chiefs.com/community/donations> for more information.

Footballs

For safety and security, footballs are prohibited from being brought into GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Ford Tailgate District

Ford Tailgate District occupies the Founder's Plaza outside of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Located between Hy-Vee and T-Mobile Gates, it is the largest pregame entertainment area available free of charge to all fans on game day. The Ford Tailgate District opens when parking lots open and remains open until just before kickoff. Featuring drink specials, entertainment, tailgate games and more, the Ford Tailgate District also includes appearances by the Chiefs Cheerleaders, KC Wolf and the Chiefs Rumble.

Ford Fan Zone

The Ford Fan Zone is located in the Upper Level between sections 320-328 and includes restrooms, concession stands, bar services, elevators, and a unique viewing experience. This is the location for Upper Level ADA ticketed guests.

Founder's Club

Located on the north side of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium at street level, the Founder's Club is a ticketed area featuring all-inclusive food and beverage in an upscale sports bar environment that is both comfortable and private while boosting the overall action and gameday atmosphere. On gameday, the Founder's Club is home to the Kansas City Chiefs Ambassadors. Members can enjoy meeting some of their favorite former players and hear their insights on the upcoming game.

Founder's Club amenities include concierge service, live entertainment, pregame Chiefs Cheerleader appearances, and convenient access to the Chiefs Team Store. Additional benefits of being a Founder's Club member include a premium, private entrance near the Founder's Plaza gate, early entrance into the club that begins 2 ½ hours prior to kickoff, as well as the luxury of staying one hour after the conclusion of the Chiefs game to catch other game action around the league on one of the numerous high definition televisions

Free Speech Areas

The Kansas City Chiefs lease GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and the surrounding areas and parking lots within the Truman Sports Complex as a sports and entertainment venue for use by its guests. It is not a forum or place for use by the public at large for assembly and speech. In order to protect its guests, the Kansas City Chiefs encourage free speech and other forms of expression in a safe and reasonable manner outside the Truman Sports Complex. Specifically, subject to applicable law, members of the public who so desire may parade with placards and signs, distribute literature or engage strangers who wish to be so engaged, subject to the following restrictions:

Such expressive activity is not permitted inside areas under the Chiefs' or its agents' control that requires a ticket for entrance, including but not limited to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and any parking lots within the Truman Sports Complex.

Expressive activity may not disrupt the free flow of automotive traffic or pedestrian traffic or otherwise cause a public safety concern.

Commercial activities, including but not limited to vending and the sale of goods or distribution of goods free of charge, are not permitted unless pre-approved in writing by the Kansas City Chiefs.

Fundraising

The Kansas City Chiefs, along with their food service partners at Aramark and Levy Restaurants, offer a unique fundraising opportunity for non-profit organizations in the Kansas and Missouri areas. Concession stands at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium are offered to volunteer groups who staff and operate the stand. In return they receive a percentage of the sales produced in that location. For more information, please contact Aramark or Levy Restaurants at the numbers below:
