PRIVATE EVENTS

HAVANA

In 1914, local grocer Edward Franz Melcher opened Hotel Havana with vision to recreate the tropical allure of the hotel's Caribbean namesake. Hotel Havana's greatest offering is the beauty of the original 1914 Mediterranean Revival design – Bastrop Pine floors, large colonial shuttered windows, elegant terraces and historic elements. The hotel is listed in the National Register of Historic Places, but manages to maintain its youthful spirit nonetheless.

HAVANA

MENU OPTIONS

Led by Chef Edward Villarreal, Ocho can create a special event menu rooted in the hotel's pan-Latin cultural influences from Mexico, Cuba and Texas. Cocktails can highlight the tequila of the hotel's San Antonio roots with the rum of its Cuban namesake, with a love for old school recipes and, when the occasion calls, the simple satisfaction an ice cold Michelada.
