Seminar Descriptions

Saturday: Know Your Number

This seminar gives an introduction to the Enneagram and the Nine Types: (Perfectionist, Giver, Performer, Romantic, Observer, Devil's Advocate, Epicure, Boss and Mediator.) Each personality type is reviewed in detail, including an evaluation of the strengths, the weaknesses and the likely interpersonal challenges that may be involved in an unhealthy expression of each type. We recommend this engaging seminar for everyone, even for those who already know their number, as Suzanne's descriptions and storytelling bring each of the types to life.

Sunday: Enneagram and Grieving

"Grieving a loss is natural and healthy. In my personal experience, including my place in the world as a pastor's wife, I am stunned by our cultural inability to grieve openly and honestly and in an overall healthy way. Because of my life's work with the Enneagram, I am intuitively aware that we all grieve in different ways. However, the behavior associated with grief is likely to be Number specific, and personality type plays a significant role in where a person is likely to be stuck in the grieving process. It is to our advantage to learn what we can, using the wisdom of the Enneagram, so that we can grieve in ways that are life giving, enhancing our ability to accept loss and enabling us to keep moving forward. This is a new workshop that has been years in the making."

- Suzanne Stabile

About the Enneagram

The Enneagram is a personality typing system that is beneficial for people in the personal, interpersonal and social spheres of existence. It is extraordinarily useful because it works. Discovering one's Enneagram type brings a deepening clarity of self knowledge. The awareness that comes is like a light shining in one's closet.

The Enneagram is primarily a spiritual tool and as such is one of the clearest and most accurate methods available for understanding ourselves and those who are important to us. The insight that it gives can change our lives. Life is simply never the same.

-Adapted from Suzanne's website,
www.lifeinthetrinityministry.com

The Enneagram is neither dry psychology nor fuzzy mysticism but a tool for transformation that uses the clarity and insight of psychology as a point of entry into a profound and universal spirituality. Thus, in a literal sense, the Enneagram is "the bridge between psychology and spirituality."

- The Wisdom of the Enneagram by Riso and Hudson

"The Enneagram ... enables us to look our real dilemma in the eye. It confronts us with the compulsions and laws under which we live -- usually without awareness -- and it invites us to go beyond them and take steps into a real domain of freedom -- freedom from our foundational addiction to our self."

- Richard Rohr

Our Speaker

Suzanne Stabile

Suzanne Stabile, an internationally renowned teacher and director of retreats, offers a unique and creative approach to the practice of Spiritual Formation. A master teacher of the Enneagram, Suzanne draws upon her educational background at Southern Methodist University, as well as her life skills learned as a mother of four, a social worker and a minister's spouse. Her refreshing teaching style is an unforgettable blend of humor, honesty and authenticity. She and her husband, Joseph, are the founders of Life in the Trinity Ministry and the Micah Center in Dallas, Texas.

"Suzanne is from West Texas. West Texans are straight shooters, use a lot of imagery, and are known for being very honest and to the point. Suzanne is that way. Hysterically funny, you will be SO GLAD you came to hear her."

- Rev. Dr. Roger Paynter
Former Pastor of Northminster Baptist Church
