

Applying Meanings

Circle the correct answer to each statement.

1. What are precious metals?

tin and mercury

copper and steel

gold, silver and platinum

nickel and zinc

2. When a house is vacant, who lives there?

a family lives there

nobody lives there

a single person lives there

the mice live there

3. In a mystery novel, when is the solving of the crime usually revealed?

at the end

at the beginning

in the book summary on the back cover

in the middle

4. How far around would you need to link a fence to surround a house and its garden?

down one side of the house and garden

all around the house and garden

down the center of the garden

down the backside of the garden

5. If you can afford to buy a car, can you buy it?

yes, in the future

maybe

no

yes

Applying Meanings

Circle the correct answer to each statement.

1. What are precious metals?

tin and mercury

copper and steel

gold, silver and platinum

nickel and zinc

2. When a house is vacant, who lives there?

a family lives there

nobody lives there

a single person lives there

the mice live there

3. In a mystery novel, when is the solving of the crime usually revealed?

at the end

at the beginning

in the book summary on the back cover

in the middle

4. How far around would you need to link a fence to surround a house and its garden?

down one side of the house and garden

all around the house and garden

down the center of the garden

down the backside of the garden

5. If you can afford to buy a car, can you buy it?

yes, in the future

maybe

no

yes