PRODUCE & FLORAL

Locally Grown in Yakima County, WA.
by Borton Fruit

Cherries

In 1912 the Borton Family began a long and successful history as fruit farmers in the Yakima Valley. Today there are 4 generations present in the business growing apples, pears and cherries. Pictured is 2nd generation Richard Borton surrounded by children and grandchildren Andy and Kalle (Borton) Briley, John, Richard, Eric, Bill and Byron. They are committed to respecting the land and continually innovating their farming practices.
