LETTER ROGATORY

Special appearance in Private of Creditor, Beneficial Grantor for Trust account

Greetings: special appearance, special proceeding in Re: Case Number: CRI-2013-021-

00 [Redacted]
PI [Redacted] RI-
2013-021-000556 FRN. 41001452 and GRN(S) 10021000001,

I, [Redacted], Beneficial Heir of the Account held in Trust by the Queen in Right of New Zealand and Guarantor for [Redacted], hereby present by special appearance/special proceeding, this letter rogatory, as, firstly, an apology on behalf of the defendant [Redacted] for the delay in the attentiveness to the above referenced matters, and for any disruption or damages that his action may have caused the crown, and an offer to settle and close, discharge all charges against that name. [Redacted] accepts all charges on condition that I the undersigned "pay" all liability by authorizing your court to draught the account in that name, money held in trust for [Redacted], which I am entitled to as evidenced by the printout, a copy of which is enclosed; in whatever amount necessary to discharge all his debt in the matter before the court.

There being no controversy, I request that the court settle and close this matter in the private that no further damage be done to the public and release the order of the court to me immediately. I also request notification and receipt, within ten (10) days, confirming the matter closed and settled, and that no further actions will be taken against the defendant. If I do not hear from you I will understand that the matters have been settled and closed.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]
[Redacted]
Beneficial Heir of the Account
