THE GRANDE DAME OF BEVERLY HILLS

Celebrate our storied history

Real estate developer Walter G. McCarty sought to lure the local in-crowd by building the luxe Beverly Wilshire Apartment Hotel, on the site of the Beverly Auto Speedway. Since opening its doors January 1928, Beverly Wilshire has experienced an extraordinary journey of transformation and growing recognition. With long-term guests including Elvis Presley, John Lennon and Steve McQueen, the Hotel has proudly welcomed Hollywood's elite for nearly a century. And with its prime position overlooking the one-and-only Rodeo Drive, the Hotel has also been the filming location for various movies, perhaps most notably the 1990 film Pretty Woman.

“

With almost 100 years of legendary people and iconic events, it's moments like the Beatles holding a press conference in the Champagne Room, and fans floating love notes up to Elvis' suite that make our Hotel so unique and iconic.
