Note: revised 10/79

1. Arrangement within the group is as follows: Those registers which contains name-lists only, or those volumes largely made up of such lists, precede other material [minutes, etc.] & have their own alphabet.
2. Board Minutes frequently include attendance records of board members.
3. Burials of dependent members are noted in the Poor Fund Accounts.
4. Church History has not been attempted & information concerning the formation, pastors & history of NYC churches will be found in the following:
 Seaman, Samuel A. Annals on New York Methodism... 1766-1890.
 NY: Hunt & Eaton 1892. ~~Mss. & Arch.~~ ANNEX RECORDS
5. Classbook & Classes should not be confused. Classbook is an attendance record of one or two classes. Classes is a list of names of those comprising the several classes of a church.
6. Class Records, usually wanting dates, are dated from external evidence only & such dating is not assumed to be exact.
7. Early Registers will also be found under the heading:
 New York City, General Records
 Methodist Episcopal Church of New York
 In the early days, records were also kept for the entire church in the city. However, in agreement with paragraph #1, these specific records preceded the General Records.
8. Obituaries will occasionally be found in those volumes containing an historical or pastoral record.
9. Officials, being appointed by the proper Quarterly Conference, may be found in the Minutes of the body, if no separate list is available.
10. ~~Overlapping records exist,~~ owing to the popularity of starting a new volume with a new pastor or a new recorder, and thus the resulting necessity of copying the old records into the new.
11. Two Circuits were created in 1832, ~~in which~~ before there were no records for either East or West Circuit. Later separate records appeared, although some of the bodies (see # 9 p. 9) continued meeting jointly for some years after the division.

NO CHURCHES TO MERGE

Duane St. Methodist and 14 Metropolitan Temple in Plan

Final arrangements for a merger of the congregations of the Duane Street Methodist Church and the Metropolitan Methodist Temple, Seventh Avenue and Thirtieth Street, were completed last night. The respective boards of trustees met at the temple and signed a consolidation agreement. Bishop Francis J. McConnell of the New York Area presided.

The Duane Street Church, organized in 1789 in a Hudson River cove, at one time had more than 300 members. The Rev. Charles Edwin Miller, Sunday pastor, said yesterday that with the recent consolidation, the church's membership will be increased to more than 400. The Metropolitan Temple, which was organized in 1852, has a membership of about 100. The consolidation will be completed by the end of the year.
