The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of Course

The purpose of this course is to train the student to interpret the Bible using the grammatical-historical-critical principles of exegesis in order to “rightly divide the Word of Truth” for teaching and preaching the Bible.

Our Core Values

The seminary has five core values. The focal core value for 2015-2016 is Mission Focus. This course supports the five core values of the seminary.

Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. Our confessional commitments are outlined in the “Articles of Religious Belief” and the “Baptist Faith and Message 2000.”

Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following seven areas:

Biblical Exposition: To interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.

Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.

Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The primary curriculum competency addressed in this course is Biblical Exposition.

Course Catalog Description

This course includes a study of the principles of biblical interpretation, an introduction to the major resources available as an aid to biblical interpretation, and an exegetical study of selected passages from the various genres of biblical literature. Some attention is directed to current issues in biblical hermeneutics, but the major focus of the course is practical in nature in that the goal of the course is that the students develop a sound method for exegesis of the biblical texts.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. The student will be able to understand the principles guiding the exegetical process for biblical interpretation.
2. The student will be able to use appropriate tools, resources, and methods to apply sound exegetical principles toward biblical interpretation.
3. The student will be able to communicate clearly the meaning of the biblical text to a contemporary audience.

Course Requirements

The following components comprise the student’s grade for the course. Grades for each component will be calculated on the basis of the following percentages. Due dates are given in the Course Schedule below.

1. Reading Quizzes (10%)

Students are to read the portions of the required texts by the date specified in the course schedule. A quiz will be opened for the student to take for the section of readings as outlined in the course schedule below and will be taken during the week of the unit covered. These quizzes are open book, but are timed. The questions will come directly from the textbook readings for the Unit of the current week. The quizzes are open book and timed. A good strategy would be to read the chapters for the Unit, watch the audio powerpoints for the chapters and mark your textbook with information from the slides. Then, take your reading quiz. Due Weekly.

2. Discussion Board Application Exercises (10%)

The student will participate in Discussion Board Application exercises. These exercises are designed to support the class materials from the Duvall & Hays textbook. You will find the assignments at the end of each chapter.

The Discussion Board is located in the Blackboard main menu. After you complete the assignment, upload your weekly application exercises/assignments in the Forum for the Unit you are working on that week. These assignments are designed to give you hands-on experience with the concepts learned in the DH readings. This post is due each week due by the Saturday night of the weekly Unit. Check the syllabus Course Schedule below for dates. Due weekly.

3. Background Study Paper (20%)

A word about format and style: Most Divisions in NOBTS use Turabian Style for writing papers. If your Division uses APA style, we will accept this for your papers. All Biblical Studies majors should use Turabian. Which ever style you use, be consistent throughout your assignments. Because all students take Introduction to Biblical Hermeneutics, we want you to focus on learning to do solid exegesis on the Bible, rather than spending extra time learning a new style for writing. Be sure to reach out to your individual professors if you are uncertain which style you should use for this course. Always write a cover page for your written assignments. We have an example in the Blackboard shell to guide you for this course.

Now, back to the Background Study Paper: The historical-critical/grammatical method of exegesis begins with a review of the historical background of the book being studied. The purpose of a background study is to determine the proper setting for your particular book and passage. This information may be found in the major commentaries, dictionaries, and encyclopedias for your passage. The historical background study should include the following:

- Historical information on the setting, authorship, readership, date and place of writing of the letter, etc.
- Information on the critical issues of the passage. These may vary and will be discussed in the major commentaries, dictionaries, and encyclopedias for your passage. Critical issues may range from controversies over authorship, time of writing, theological issues, difficult subjects, etc. Every Bible book or letter is different.
- A discussion of the theological issues covered in the passage.
- A section where you focus upon your specific background topic as indicated in the Bible passages below (see further in this syllabus)

4. Word Study Paper (10%)

The historical-critical/grammatical view gives focus to word studies and what words meant in the original context. The student will complete a word study on a word indicated from an assigned text (see the list in this syllabus below). The GGW textbook has a complete guide to performing a word study. Consult that chapter in Duval & Hays.

The paper is to be single-spaced, Turabian or APA format, 2-3 pages excluding the cover page and bibliography. Please use a minimum of 5-6 sources on this paper.

5. Two Stage Exegesis Paper Project (40% Total for Two stages)

Using the historical-critical/grammatical method of exegesis, the student will exegete the selected passage. The major project in the course is consists of a practical application in the form of an exegetical paper, which is to be produced in two stages. The detailed instructions are located at the end of the syllabus. (See Below)

(1) Stage One (30%) – The first stage is a thorough exegetical study that is to follow the attached guidelines, 15-20 pages in length, double-spaced, Turabian or APA format including the cover page and bibliography. At the end of this stage, the student should have gathered all the essential knowledge from the text and be ready to begin the task of constructing a sermon or a teaching lesson. Please use a minimum of 7-8 quality sources on this paper. There is a Guide provided for you in the Blackboard shell. (See the Short Guide to Writing Exegetical Papers in Bb. The Short Guide has a breakdown of items for use in grading your paper).

(2) Stage Two (10%) – THIS IS THE EMBEDDED ASSIGNMENT. The second stage is a polished, written, double-spaced 7-page paper (including the cover page and 1 page bibliography). Follow Turabian or APA format to cite your sources. The purpose of this stage two paper is to synthesize the information you have gathered from the background paper, word study paper, and first stage exegesis paper into a well-written presentation. Use the Embedded Assignment rubric in this syllabus as a guide for writing this paper. Please use a minimum of 5-6 sources on this paper. This stage should have an interesting introduction, developed body, and a conclusion that ties the paper together. It may take the form of a sermon, academic paper for presentation, or teaching outline/paper.

6. Comprehensive Final Exam (10%) – The final will include all material covered in the Duvall and Hays textbook Grasping God's Word. The exam is open book, but is timed.

7. Extra Credit – Up to 3 points added to the student's final average can be earned by doing an extra credit project. You may write a Book Review on any one of the 3 optional textbooks listed above. The student may present a 7 page, double-spaced book review where the student is awarded 1 point per 150 pages read. State the thesis of the book, author's perspectives, strengths and weaknesses, and how you would see the book applying to your ministry. See the Documents section for a guide for writing theological book reviews.

Netiquette

Appropriate Online Behavior. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Academic Catalog Policies

Academic policies related to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current online catalog: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Academic Catalog.

Web-based Course Reminder/Warning

Web-based courses are, by nature, a different kind of learning experience than courses taught in the traditional classroom. Because of this structure, this web-based course is more reading and writing intensive than traditional classroom courses. Rigorous study of the deep things of God can be a rewarding experience for anyone who participates in it, but it also calls for extra diligence and integrity in completing the work. This reality does not mean that a web-based course cannot be successful in equipping you, the student, for effective, God-honoring ministry. It simply means utilizing a different strategy. Internet courses allow room for independent learners to thrive—to work at a responsible pace, to engage in student-led discussions, and to take ownership of the learning of course content. Note that your instructors are praying for your success.

Course Schedule

Recommended Computer Software

The student is strongly encouraged to purchase Bible software for his/her use in biblical exegesis. At this level of study, a software program capable of producing the text, performing sophisticated morphological searches, with available lexicons, commentaries, and other helpful supplemental works is an absolute necessity. The software packages listed below are capable of intense, complex searches required for biblical studies research purposes and/or sermon preparation. The purchase of this kind of software is indispensable at this level of language study. The major software packages all run on either PC or Mac platforms.

Accordance:

The Original Languages Package is around $300 with many other add-on texts available and they offer student discounts. Accordance has a PC emulator as well. Responses have been varied on this emulator. Call their customer service for questions and student discounts. (accordancebible.com)

BibleWorks:

BibleWorks (bibleworks.com) provides discounts for our students when purchased in bulk orders (see your professor for more information). BibleWorks costs about $350 for their basic software program which includes many supplemental works. Ordered in bundles of 10 or more, the price is reduced to $250 for NOBTS seminary students. Bulk orders are placed through the local NOBTS LifeWay Store. Call their customer service for questions and student discounts. (bibleworks.com)

Logos 6:

Logos 6.0 is offered at varied package prices, but we recommend that you consider a minimum of the Bronze Level package that has the Greek and Hebrew texts for NOBTS language courses. NOBTS offers a training course called PREA6230/6330 Technological Applications for Bible Study and Preaching. Students who take this course may purchase the software at a 50% discount. Students who purchase the software directly from Logos receive a 30% discount. Call their customer service for questions and student discounts. (logos.com)

Time Management

How Can I Learn Time Management?

1. Use a personal calendar

As simple as this may sound, many ministers have not mastered the use of their calendar. Use a paper calendar or electronic calendar of your choice on your phone or computer--but use it! Here is one method for learning how to use your calendar:

a. Mark your Project Due Date:

Take your syllabus, right now, and mark EVERY assignment due date. Simply transfer this step to your professional project due dates as well. Do this immediately when you receive a due date of any kind.

b. Calculate your Project Start Date:

Give consideration to how long you think the assignment/project will realistically take to complete and ‘back up’ on your calendar that amount of time.

c. Add about 10-15% more time to allow for foreseen events that always come up: In ministry, unforeseen events always occur. Learn to build in a time cushion that will absorb these events and keep your project on track.

d. Mark the adjusted, calculation for the Project Start Date on your calendar.

e. Discipline yourself to start the project on your calculated date.

This is the most critical and difficult part of time management. Discipline yourself to start on the timetable you set for yourself.

f. Adjust as needed

2. Use a “To Do List”

This is crucial for time management. Once you have your Project Start Dates on the calendar, your To Do List helps you visualize what you need to accomplish this particular day during your busy schedule. This is

3. Look at your calendar first thing as you start your day.

No exceptions! You MUST learn to view your calendar daily. You may miss deadlines and responsibilities if you fail simply to look at your calendar.

4. Prioritize your “To Do List”

Ask God during your morning prayers to help you prioritize and accomplish your tasks to His glory!

5. Work down your prioritized list

After step 4, discipline yourself to do each item! Check them off as a small reward for accomplishing each task.

6. Carry over unfinished items to the next day’s “To Do List”

Some days you just cannot get it all done and sometimes God rearranges your day. Be realistic and move unfinished items to the next day.

Mastering calendar use is primarily a self-discipline issue. Once you learn to mark your deadlines and follow your calendar, you will feel a wonderful sense of freedom. You will not miss any deadline in your life. All of your responsibilities will be right in your calendar and all you have to do is follow it. You will also have confidence to know that you will meet all of these deadlines in a professional manner. Much success in your ministry hinges upon three imperatives: “Show up!” “Show up on time!” “Show up prepared!”
