THE CLEVELAND CAVALIERS INTRODUCE CAVS LEGION GAMING CLUB (GC) TO COMPETE IN THE UPCOMING NBA 2K LEAGUE

The inaugural NBA 2K League season is booting up and ready to tip-off in May 2018. The official name of the team that will rep Cleveland on the virtual court is Cavs Legion Gaming Club (GC). In addition, Anthony Muraco has been named Director, Gaming Operations and the HOT POCKETS® brand signed on to be the first founding partner of Cavs Legion GC. Cavs Legion GC is one of 17 NBA 2K League teams participating in the inaugural NBA 2K League season. The Cavs Legion GC official team colors are wine and gold, consistent with the look and feel of the Cavaliers NBA team franchise. The official team logo features a contemporary adaptation of the Cavalier profile, set above the team name in a sharp typeface that's inspired by the edges of a sword.

The NBA 2K League, a joint venture between the NBA and Take-Two Interactive, is a professional esports league that will feature the best 2K players in the world. Anyone across the world who owns NBA 2K18 (PS4 or Xbox One) and is 18 years or older can try out to potentially be drafted into the league. The NBA 2K League Qualifier will take place from Jan. 1-31, 2018. To qualify to be invited to the next round of tryouts in February, players need to win 50 games in Pro-Am Mode of NBA 2K18 and complete an online application by midnight on January 31st. Brendan Donohue, managing director of the NBA 2K League, held a Reddit AMA (ask me anything) last week regarding the first round of tryouts. In March, each of the 17 NBA 2K League teams will draft five players. The teams will live in each respective market during the season and play the game using unique characters. The games will be played in one or two central studios throughout the season.
