Columbus State in Brief

Columbus State Community College has been meeting the diverse educational needs of the Central Ohio community for more than 50 years. The college is proud to be an important contributor to the growth and progress of the region and to serve as the front door to higher education in Central Ohio.

In 1963, the Columbus Board of Education created the Columbus Area Technician School, and the board designated an area of Central High School to house this new school for two-year, post-secondary technical programs. Rapid growth in enrollment during the initial two years caused the Board of Education to purchase the Columbus Aquinas Parochial High School property and move the Technician School to a permanent campus. May 25, 1965, the Ohio Board of Regents gave approval to a proposal from the Columbus Board of Education to create the Columbus Technical Institute District, and the Columbus Technical Institute was granted a charter effective July 1, 1967.

As a state-assisted college, Columbus Technical Institute provided technical programs that prepared students for immediate employment. From the first graduating class in 1965 through this year, more than 50,000 students have earned associate degrees in 50+ technical fields and academic transfer programs. The success of the college is reflected in the accomplishments of these graduates and thousands of other students who have completed courses to enhance their knowledge and skills.

On July 1, 1987, Columbus Technical Institute was re-chartered as Columbus State Community College by action of the Ohio Board of Regents. This significant change was a result of careful study of the educational needs of Columbus and central Ohio. The resulting findings supported the establishment of a comprehensive community college to provide additional educational opportunities to area residents.

As a comprehensive community college, Columbus State has a strong commitment to students seeking career and technical education leading to employment and to students who want to pursue an Arts and Sciences curriculum leading to an associate degree and then to an undergraduate degree. Our Career and Technical Division offers certificates and associate degree programs in the areas of business and marketing, computers and interactive media, construction sciences and skilled trades technologies, engineering technologies, health and human services, hospitality, and public services. Columbus State also offers Associate of Arts and Associate of Science degree programs whose coursework fulfills the freshman and sophomore year requirements for bachelor's degree programs offered by four-year colleges and universities throughout the state.

Specific transfer agreements with 40+ colleges and universities are in place at Columbus State, and new direct-to-degree partnership programs are being developed all the time. The college's Center for Workforce Development offers skills' enhancement, customized training, professional development, and business consulting for area industries, employers, and individuals.

Columbus State now has two campuses serving Central Ohio educational needs. The Columbus Campus is located on 85 acres in downtown Columbus. This campus consists of two dozen buildings housing classrooms, laboratories, student services and college offices. Also part of this campus is the recently remodeled library in Columbus Hall which provides materials and resources for students.

The 108-acre, full-service Delaware Campus is located between Columbus and Delaware along U.S. 23, and has an administration building and Moeller Hall, an 80,000 sq. ft., LEEDS Gold-Certified academic building. Currently, students are able to schedule classes in a wide variety of subjects and can pursue several degrees and certificates through the Delaware Campus. Columbus State partners with Franklin University at the Delaware Campus, offering several bachelor degree completion programs through the partnership.

Additionally, Columbus State offers classes at five convenient regional learning centers throughout Central Ohio. At several of these, a wide range of student services are available and students can even complete an associate degree. Columbus State also operates a facility for Aviation Maintenance Technology at Bolton Field Airport.

Columbus State Community College serves Franklin, Delaware, Madison, and Union counties. A nine-member Board of Trustees is appointed by the governor. Columbus State is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, and many of the college's degree programs are accredited by professional associations and agencies.
