Instructions

Johnson Graduate School of Management Federal Loan Application App

- 1. Complete the Federal Loan Application, and complete the current year FAFSA.
- 2. Upload application https://wdbcs.secure.force.com/public/fadocgeneralupload
- 3. The Financial Aid Office will process your request for all loan funds. Once processed, a loan award notification is emailed to your Cornell University email account.
- 4. If your resources change from the information you report, you drop below the minimum credits or your status changes, you must inform the Financial Aid Office in writing at financialaid@johnson.comell.edu.
- 5. Missing or incomplete information may result in a delay in processing your loan. Please check your Student Service Center for confirmation or contact the office at financialaid@johnson.cornell.edu.
- 6. If you wish to cancel or reduce the amount of your loans, you must notify our office in writing by emailing financialaid@johnson.cornell.edu.

FUNDS DISBURSEMENT PROCESS

- First-time Federal Direct and Grad PLUS Loan CU borrowers: If you are a first-time borrower at Cornell, you must sign an Electronic Master Promissory Note (MPN) AND complete the Entrance Counseling for graduate/professional students. Both must be completed online at https://studentloans.gov. Students who borrower Graduate PLUS must also complete an additional MPN. Your FSA ID is required to complete this process.
- 2. Previous borrowers: If you received a Federal Loan from Cornell in the past, you don't need to do anything now because you signed a Master Promissory Note the first time you borrowed.
- 3. Once you have completed the MPN(s) and the Entrance Counseling, Cornell will disburse the semester's funds to your bursar account.
