

40 Questions for Kids to Ask Their Grandparents

- What is your full name?
- Does your name have a special meaning?
- Did you have any nicknames when you were growing up?
- Where were you born?
- Where did you grow up?
- What is your earliest memory?
- What kinds of things did you do for fun when you were a child?
- What was your favorite subject in school?
- What was your favorite toy?
- What sorts of clothes and activities were popular when you were a teenager?
- What did you want to be when you grew up?
- What sorts of things got you in trouble when you were a kid?
- How does growing up today differ from growing up when you were a child?
- How were holidays celebrated in your family when you were a kid?
- In what places have you lived?
- What do you know about the origins of our family?
- What is the most important thing you learned from your parents?
- What was your first job?
- Where's the most interesting place you've traveled?
- How did you meet Grandma/Grandpa?
- Where was your wedding?
- Who was your maid of honor/best man?
- What do you remember about the day that my mom/dad was born?
- What is your favorite food?
- What is your favorite hobby?
- What makes you happy?
- What are your favorite holiday traditions?
- How do you handle stress?
- Do you practice a religion?
- How do your religious beliefs impact your life?
- What has been your favorite age?
- Which family members, friends, and public figures do you admire the most?
- What's the most difficult thing you've had to overcome?
- Looking back on your life, what is your favorite accomplishment?
- What is one significant mistake you've made and what did you learn from it?
- What skills do you think I need to learn in order to be successful in life?
- What things should I consider as I choose what to do with my life?
- If you could give me one piece of advice, what would it be?
- What is your favorite thing about being a grandparent?
- What would I be surprised to learn about you?

