Next we crashed into each other on the bumper cars. And then we got dizzy spinning around on the carousel. But my favorite ride was definitely the Ferris Wheel. Way up at the top it was like we could see the whole world! But, with so many rides to see we only got to ride half of them, so I guess I have to go back next weekend!

While I've played hundreds of video games, my favorite is easily Pokémon. If you're not familiar with Pokémon, let me explain a little about it. Pokémon is a game about exploring and collecting little monsters called Pokémon. You then use the pokémon to battle other trainers, collect badges and discover new areas. But by far the best part about the game is that there are literally hundreds of Pokémon to collect, so you can play for hours and hours! Give the game a shot and I'm sure in no time you'll agree with me that it's the best game ever!
