December 17-18, 2019	Needs Assessment	Anchorage, AK
Trainer:	Agnew::Beck
Location:	Dimond Center Hotel 700 E Dimond Blvd	(907) 770-5000
Reservations:	www.dimondcenterhotel.com Group Code: AAHA129
Registration:	To Register click here
Description:	AAHA will host a two (2) day training on Needs Assessment. Alaska Tribes and Tribally Designated Housing Entities (TDHE) must understand the housing needs in the communities to be able to fairly and effectively distribute NAHASDA funds to achieve housing goals of homeownership, rentals, repairs and housing services programs. To increase affordable, energy efficient housing within their regions, it is critical that these tribes and TDHEs have access to solid data to help make informed decisions on where to invest, what types of housing program to develop and which funding programs to target. Knowledge derived through housing needs assessments can also assist by achieving a compelling funding case for outside investors.
February 4-5, 2020	Self-Monitoring	Anchorage, AK
Trainer:	Shannon Reynaga & Kennedy Serr
Location:	Dimond Center Hotel 700 E Dimond Blvd	(907)770-5000
Reservations:	www.dimondcenterhotel.com Group Code: AHA23
Registration:	To Register click here
Description:	AAHA will host a two (2) day training to provide participants with a solid foundation for complying with the self-monitoring requirements of NAHASDA and 2 CFR 200, and to provide strategies and insights that recipients can utilize to make self-monitoring an effective tool to accomplish their goals. This training will emphasize the development of local self-monitoring plans that are appropriate and effective for the size and needs of the recipient's program. The training will provide participants with the most current information on the requirements as well as the tools that are available to support recipient self-monitoring.
February 11-14, 2020	NAHASDA Essentials	Anchorage, AK
