Message from the Head of Department

Welcome to the Department of Sociology, Psychology and Social Work, the department where people are our focus. Therefore, our first priority is to bid you a warm welcome whether you are first time visitor, returning student or faculty member. In a world where we seek 'truth' and attempt to verify it with data, we do not wish to lose sight of the fact that statistics mean nothing without recognising that they pertain to real, breathing warm-blooded individuals.

We, a multidisciplinary department, embrace the diversity of humanity across all races, ethnicities and variations. Despite the discreteness of the three main areas of study and work, we pride ourselves in being also instructed by Demography and of course Anthropology. Importantly we all manage to find a synergy and collegiality which is often missing in academic units where the interests are so distinct.

This Department strives to be an axis of professionalism, mutual respect and student-centredness in our work and interactions. Thus, we focus on helping to create and enhance an ambiance of learning and development.

Still, we are part of the wider University family and we fully share all the developmental goals of our historic institution. While one may find the department and disciplines to be a little darker than the Euro-American version, this is simply a recognition that we are a plantation survival and have strong tints of the African in our cultural DNA. Nonetheless, there is a deep appreciation for the motto of our host nation, "Out of Many One People."

Our mandate is to continue to be relevant in creating understanding of ourselves first and foremost. Then we thus use that knowledge as a base for the critical analysis of Caribbean society and a pivot for Development as we increase our already well-established relevance to our region.

Dr. Orville W. Taylor

FIVE THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW NOW

1 ORIENTATION AND ACADEMIC ADVISING The Orientation and Academic Advising scheduled at the start of the academic year are essential to the academic success of students. It provides an opportunity to welcome, engage, and share with students, information relating to their programme of study, course selection, and charting an academic career. As such, attendance at these sessions by newly-admitted students is mandatory.

REGISTRATION Students must register for semester 1 and semester 2 courses at the beginning of each academic year unless they wish to take leave of absence or withdraw voluntarily. It is advisable that students delay registering until they have had a chance to receive academic advising. The courses for which students should register are outlined in the 2018/2019 undergraduate handbook on the Faculty's website.

3 ENROLMENT STATUS (FULL-TIME/PART-TIME) All students are initially admitted to the Faculty as full-time or part-time students. A new full-time student is required to register for 10 courses in any one academic year while part-time students are required to register for a maximum of 6 courses. Part-time students must complete a minimum of twenty-four (24) credits to be eligible for transfer to full-time. Part-time in the Faculty is defined by a student's work load per semester and does not mean evening studies. While Level I courses are offered throughout the day and evening, the majority of the courses at Levels II and III are taught during the day only. Thus, students registered part-time must be prepared to attend classes at times between 8am and 5pm.

DEFERRAL OF ENTRY A student who does not wish to commence studies during the semester he/ she was admitted or readmitted to the Faculty is not eligible for leave of absence or voluntary withdrawal. Students are advised to inform the Admissions Section of their intention to defer entry.

5 REQUIREMENTS FOR THE AWARD OF DEGREE In order to qualify for the award of the degree, a student must (i) have completed a minimum of 90 credits (normally equivalent to 30 courses) of which at least thirty credits are from Level I (including the Foundation Course requirements), and at least sixty credits from Levels II & III courses, (ii) have satisfied the requirements of their declared degree programme and (iii) have a weighted/degree GPA not less than 2.0.

DEPARTMENT INFORMATION AND GUIDELINES

1. The Department of Sociology, Psychology and Social Work offers BSc. degrees and diplomas in the following areas:
 - Criminology (Minor)
 - Demography (Major and Minor)
 - Human Resource Development (Minor)
 - Labour and Employment Relations (Major)
 - Population and Development (Diploma)
 - Psychology (Major, Minor and Diploma)
 - Social Anthropology (Major and Minor)
 - Social Policy and Development (Major and Minor)
 - Social Psychology (Minor)
 - Social Work (Special)
 - Sociology (Major, Minor and Diploma)
2. Students should consult course descriptions when selecting electives. The choice of electives should complement the major field of study.
3. Electives at Levels II and III must be from either Level II or III courses. Level III courses may be taken in year 2 as long as the pre-requisites have been met.
4. All courses are for 3 credits except where otherwise indicated.
5. Most Levels II and III courses have pre-requisites as you will see from the list of courses being offered in Part V of this Handbook.
6. While double Majors are permitted, the Department prefers that students select a single Major (and a Minor by choice). This allows a wider choice of electives which can serve to strengthen the Major or the Minor.
7. Where the same course is listed for both a Major and a Minor, it is counted only ONCE therefore, an additional approved course must also be taken to complete the required total of 60 credits at Levels II and III.
8. Students taking double Majors in Sociology and Psychology, or Sociology and Demography, may only apply the required course, SOCI2008: Statistics for Behavioural Sciences, to ONE of the Majors and must then select an additional course to complete the ten (10) courses for the other Major.
9. EDRS2007: Basic Research Methods is accepted as a substitute wherever SOCI1001: Introduction to Social Research is listed.

10. ECON1005: Introduction to Statistics is accepted as a substitute wherever SOCI1005: Introduction to Statistics for the Behavioural Sciences is listed.
11. The combination of PSYC1005: Research Methods in Social, Developmental and Abnormal Psychology and PSYC1006: Research Methods in Cognitive and Physiological Psychology are accepted as substitutes for SOCI1001: Introduction to Social Research. This is only applicable to Psychology Majors (or 'Double Majors' doing Psychology as their second major)

12. Department Coursework Guidelines

- Coursework refers to pieces of assigned work during the semester. It would usually take the form of all or some of the following: mid-semester exam, an essay, group, individual or class presentation, research proposal, and where necessary, labs/practicals. At the beginning of each semester a 'course outline' is prepared for each course. On this course outline all indications of course content, due dates for assignments, room, contact information and office hours of lecturers must be clearly printed.
- Coursework assignments should be marked and returned to students prior to examinations. A principal objective of coursework is that feedback can be given to each student as an aid to learning. This distinguishes it from the conditions pertaining to the final examination.
- Where 'in-course' tests are being administered, these should normally be no later than the 8th week of the semester, unless there is no final examination.
- Where both written coursework and 'in-course' tests are being used as a method of assessment, these should be scheduled at least three weeks apart, unless there is no final examination.
- Coursework submitted after the due date will be subject to a deduction of 5% of the coursework marks for each day late, (i.e., 1 mark out of 20 per day).
- Exemption from a penalty will only be considered if an excuse is submitted in writing. This will have to relate to illness (medical certificate required), serious domestic problems and in the instance of part time students only, significant work-related problems. In such instances the lecturer may grant an extension for a specified period or may refer the request for the discretion of the Head of Department for a final decision.
- Excuses must be submitted prior to the due date for submission of the coursework.

- In the event that a student has completed coursework and is excused from sitting the final exam (illness or other special circumstances), coursework marks may be carried over to the next available sitting of the course. Should there be an increase in the proportion of marks allotted for the next sitting, a further assignment may be required for the additional marks.
 - In all undergraduate offerings, students must obtain at least 25% of the marks assigned for coursework for successful completion of the course [i.e., where 40 marks or 40% of the full course is assigned for coursework, a minimum of 10 marks must be obtained].
 - In cases where a student is dissatisfied with his/her final examination grade, the matter may be directed to the Examinations Office for a review, re-mark or a go-through.
13. Plagiarism & Academic Honesty. The Faculty of Social Sciences takes plagiarism and academic honesty very seriously. An Undergraduate Coursework Accountability Statement is to be attached by students to the front of any document submitted as a component of coursework save for when coursework consists of an invigilated examination. Where the submission is entirely in electronic form, the student shall make an equivalent declaration electronically. Statements are available for download on the Faculty's website).
14. Students may receive exemption without credit for CAPE subjects if they obtained a Grade I-IV as indicated below. However, students must register for another Level I replacement course(s) of their choosing.
- Economics [Units 1 & 2] exemption from ECON1000 and/or ECON1012
 - Statistical Analysis/Applied Mathematics Unit1 exemption from ECON1005
 - Sociology Unit 1 exemption from SOCI1002
 - Accounting Unit 1 exemption from ACCT1005
 - Accounting Unit 2 exemption from ACCT1003
 - Pure Mathematics Units 1 & 2 exemption from ECON1003
15. Anti-Requisites: These are courses that cannot be taken together for credit. Students are urged to view the complete list of anti-requisite courses in Part V of the online version of the 2018/2019 Handbook.
16. Full-time and part-time students may register for a maximum of 30 credits (10 courses) and 18 credits (6 courses) in an academic year, respectively. See Full-time and Part-time Regulations in Part III of this Handbook.

FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES GENERAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Preamble

This code has been generated in line with what is believed to be staff and students' general perceptions on what may or may not be considered appropriate conduct, and has been formulated through constant consultation with representatives of the relevant groups. This has been done in recognition of the fact that the faculty and its environs should be associated or seen as being synonymous with activities that uphold the university's, and by extensions its faculties', mandate towards the expansion and promotion of pursuits of an academic nature; and that persons therein should aspire to conduct themselves in a manner that may be considered socially acceptable. Therefore, wholesale and/or blatant disregard for the stipulations made herein may result in the application of disciplinary action.

Code of Conduct

- (a) Areas surrounding lecture rooms and offices are designated quiet zones. Students shall therefore refrain from engaging in loud conversation or any other noise-generating activity that may cause disturbance. This includes, but is not restricted to singing, recitations, preaching, loud praying, the use of noise-emitting electronic equipment (i.e. radios, phones, etc.), and romping and playing of physical games (e.g. scrimmage). Persons are also to refrain from the use of violent and offensive language.
- (b) The Faculty's space shall be considered as meant for activities of an academic nature. The facilities provided therein should therefore be utilized appropriately and in their rightful fashion.
- (c) Persons shall refrain from engaging in behaviour not suited for the Faculty's space, this includes the restrooms. This takes into account, but is not limited to lying down or sleeping on the furniture, public grooming, and the playing of games such as cards, dominoes and other such board games. Persons shall also refrain from engaging in any activity which amounts to an inappropriate public display of affection.
- (d) Persons shall refrain from lingering or congregating along designated pathways in a manner that may obstruct free movement. This includes the sitting on of stairs and railings. Additionally, persons shall avoid walking in or through gardens and related lawns. There shall also be no riding on the pathways, except in the case of disabled persons who utilize mobility aids.
- (e) Persons are not to remove furniture from their prescribed locations. This includes removing chairs and/or tables from classrooms, benches from usual positions, etc. An exception may be made in the case where the movement of furniture is necessary to facilitate the instructional programme/process, so long as the furniture is replaced in its original position thereafter.

- (f) Persons, in adhering to this General Code of Conduct, shall also be careful to abide by the stipulations of other such Faculty guidelines/policies. These include, but are not limited to the Faculty's Code of Conduct for Instructional Sessions, as well as the Faculty's Notice Posting Policy.
