Ms. Doris focuses her practice in the areas of estate planning, trust and estate administration, taxation, elder law, special needs planning and residential real estate. She represents clients of all financial backgrounds, from those with modest means to multi-million dollar estates.

Ms. Doris graduated cum laude from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center, where she earned awards for academic excellence in Land Use, Zoning and Planning, the Elder Law Clinic, Family Law and Real Estate Transactions.

Ms. Doris is active in the Alzheimer's Association as a Walk to End Alzheimer's Committee Member. As someone who has witnessed a loved one suffer from the disease, she is understanding and passionate about helping clients navigate the hurdles of Alzheimer's, dementia and the aging process in general. This has led to a professional interest in assisting clients with long-term care planning and the Medicaid process.

Ms. Doris is admitted to practice law in New York State and is a member of the New York State Bar Association and Suffolk County Bar Association.
