Regional Transportation Authority

The Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) provides financial oversight, funding, and regional transit planning for the three public transit operations in Northeastern Illinois that serve two million riders each weekday: The Chicago Transit Authority (CTA), Metra and Pace bus and paratransit. The Agency provides customer services including on-line and telephone travel planning assistance and travel training for people with disabilities. The RTA is the only transit agency that focuses on the entire region when determining transit planning and funding. The RTA region has a population of approximately eight million people throughout six counties and 7,200 transit route miles. For more information, visit RTAChicago.org

CTA, Metra and Pace

The Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) runs bus and elevated/subway trains in Chicago and nearby suburbs. For current fare and schedule information, visit transitchicago.com

Metra provides commuter rail services to 242 stations throughout the region serving Chicago and its suburbs. For complete fare and schedule information, visit MetraRail.com

Pace moves people throughout the Chicago region with fixed bus routes, Dial-a-Ride, Call-n-Ride and other community transit programs. Most Pace bus routes connect with Metra and CTA service. For schedules and fares, visit PaceBus.com

Transit Partners

South Shore Line runs trains on the Metra Electric line from downtown Chicago to South Bend, Indiana, serving the Southeast Side of Chicago and Northwest Indiana. For schedules and fares visit nctd.com

Amtrak provides rail service from Chicago's Union Station to cities throughout Illinois and United States. Many of these routes, combined with Thruway buses, connect 35 Illinois cities. For more information, visit Amtrak.com

Chicago Water Taxi offers a direct link from the Metra and Amtrak train stations at Madison Street to Michigan Avenue, North Avenue and Chinatown. For more information visit chicagowatertaxi.com

Divvy Bikes

Divvy is Chicago's bike share system. Many Divvy stations are conveniently located near CTA and Metra stations. Bikes can be checked out from and returned to any station. For pricing and station locations, please visit DivvyBikes.com

Bikes On Transit

CTA and Pace provide bus service throughout the Chicagoland region. Customers can put their bikes on bus bike racks located on the front of buses. Bikes are permitted on CTA trains except during weekday rush periods.

On Metra, bikes are allowed on certain weekday trains and all weekend trains, visit MetraRail.com for details. Northern Indiana Transit District permits bikes on select trains, for more information visit nctd.com

Accessibility

Metra has 242 commuter rail stations, of which 171 are fully accessible and 22 are partially accessible. The CTA "L" train system includes 145 stations, of which 102 are fully accessible. All CTA and Pace buses are ramp-equipped and make automated stop announcements. For more information on how to use the region's accessible bus and rail system, visit RTAChicago.org/rider-resources/accessible-transit
