 Get Him Hooked

Harvey Hooke

Section 1:
Mr. Non commitment

Hey!

Thanks so much for downloading this! There is no-one more excited than I am to have you download this guide which means you're somebody who cares about the relationships in life... and therefore somebody I REALLY care about <3. As your coach and as your friend I am really excited to be helping you through this situation you're in because you are not alone in this at all.

You might have downloaded this guide because you're sick and tired of a guy who can't make up his mind. Maybe you've been trying to pin him down for a while, or maybe you're in a situation where he keeps flirting with you, but never really is willing to take action.

Imagine what it could be like if you could get that guy to commit to you, even if it was for one date... that would feel pretty good right?

If you want to get from the old position where you're stuck not knowing what to do, to a position where you are carefree and you know what you've got to next you might need a new strategy.

Now, as I said in the video, there are two pain reasons that a guy will not commit. I call this "FENCE THEORY," where a guy is sitting on a fence between a yes and a no and he just can't make up his mind. Using this one text you'll be able to dislodge him from the fence, and find out what he's REALLY thinking.

What I present to you is a way of messaging somebody so you get an answer! You'll find out if they are still interested and to what extent. With everything that I give you, I want you to know that all superpowers CAN be used for evil, so PLEASE... only use this for good!

Oh, and I know, you might be wondering, this is not something I made up. This is something that I've used with my clients to get them RESULTS NOW!

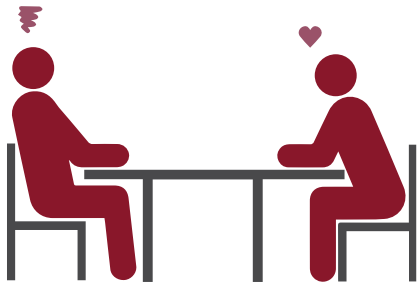

It's something that's also worked in my own life as well. I'd never give out something that doesn't work.

Anyway, I'm excited to share this with you, so don't delay!

See you on the other side,

Harvey Hooke

LET'S TALK ABOUT DATES

Dates are fun,

Dates should be casual,

Most of all, dates are REAL

Dates are one of the best things that you can learn to do. Some people are afraid of them, but after a while they get to realise that it's a chance to learn about someone new, learn about yourself and not take life too seriously.

The thing about dates that is worth noting is that they ARE REAL. They actually take some commitment from a person to say

“hey, I’m potentially interested in you, how about you and I spend some time together to see how well we jell”

This is where the non-committal guy comes in. It’s that “REAL” factor that holds him back, and as such, he’s sitting on a fence. This fence exists so he doesn’t have to survive, and as a result, he’s stuck in a fantasy land where he can both “have you” and “not have you.”

Here’s the thing about the fence. The guy who’s sitting on it has actually come up with an answer (even at a subconscious level) but he just can’t follow through. This message that I’m about to give you will help with that. It’ll make him decide, and help you decide.

So it is worth just quickly recapping some past knowledge.

I present to you in an easy to read format.

The two reasons why guy's sit on a fence.

1. There is a mental blockage.

This is a sticky situation. Often you'll find that a guy can't commit because of a mental blockage. It can be a reason where it's got something to do with his friends, or his family or his past relationships. Sometimes, he might actually be in a relationship now and he just hasn't told you! Regardless of what situation he is in, he's subconsciously decided it's easier to have you around than not to. It is up to you to decide if this is something you want to pursue.

2. He's just not excited enough.

THIS IS THE BEST SITUATION. You might be thinking "screw you Harvey, I am exciting... but the truth of the situation is, that if he is on the fence, it because he's not presented with enough of a challenge.

You see, men are excited by a challenge. It's that thing that will drive them to chase you, and with that, it will drive them to STAY. They want to stake their ownership over things, which is why there's nothing sexier than a woman with confidence.

A powerful woman is an ultimate challenge.

*Section 2:
The ultimate non-committal
guy text message*

So without further delay here it is...

I want to first give you the message then BREAK IT DOWN so you can adapt it to your own personal style. I don't want to change you or the way you think, I just want to give you a tool that will help you in situations because frankly, I wish somebody had told me this when I was first figuring this out...

Hey _____
I've been thinking, we've wanted to catch up for such a long time, so if you're serious let's do it!
I'm not the kind of girl that waits around forever. I'm free _____ if you are. Does drinks sound good?

This is such an intricate text message that it will communicate so many things. If you know me, I LOVE the way the mind works, and I absolutely adore it when people stand up for themselves.

The best thing about this is this text message communicates STANDARDS. Having and keeping standards is one of those things that a lot of people will take for granted. It's the standard to say that you always keep your appointments, a standard to say that you're always going to be a good friend, and it should be a standard for now that you always get an answer.

While it's important to note that some guys TAKE TIME to come to conclusion, chances are, if you've gotten to the point where you need to send this text message, you've communicated to him that it doesn't matter if he can mess you around or not.

You see, this same guy will NEVER mess with a girl who demonstrates to him that he can't. He might even find it a bit of a turn on. While this is something that you could have done from the very start, this is something that is never too late to start.

Maybe you'll get a glimpse of this power that you already have. With my own life, the more I've come into alignment with my own standards, my relationships and life became INSTANTLY better. Why? Because I knew what I stood for.

So let's break it down!

Hey _____ just means you're saying hello.
There's no need to overthink this part!

Recognise the elephant in the room!
Nothing breathes out dirty laundry than this!
It also makes it real, so if there's an issue he can come clear about it! You're also taking into question his ability to be "serious" which will rattle his cage a little bit.

▶ Hey _____
▶ I've been thinking, we've wanted to catch up for such a long time, so if you're serious let's do it!
▶ I'm not the kind of girl that waits around forever. I'm free _____ if you are. Does drinks sound good?

You're putting a bit more fire up his arse here. By saying you're not going to wait around he's going to have to decide what he wants to do. There's a high chance he'll step up to this if he really likes you.

Suggest a date, because you want to make it real and you want to show him you mean business. The reason why you're saying "Drinks sound good" because it's about the drinks. It makes it easier for him to agree since it is just about drinks and not about you. Similarly it's not confronting... nobody really likes a fullfrontal confrontation.

*Section 3:
The possible responses!*

OK, let's get serious about this!

You're going to get one of three responses... and one response that isn't a response.

The first response is from the guy type 1..

Something is mentally blocking him and he's down.

You might get a response like this...

Hey _____
I've been thinking, we've wanted to catch up for such a long time, so if you're serious let's do it!
I'm not the kind of girl that waits around forever. I'm free _____ if you are. Does drinks sound good?

Hey!
I'm so sorry! I've just been caught up with a bit of a situation. I would love to catch up, drinks sounds good.

While I cannot guarantee that his text will look exactly like this, you've shown him your serious and that even though he has stuff going on his life, he might lose you if he doesn't take action now. His rattled cage has shown him that you're somebody that is worth chasing, the pursuit is on for him. ;)

Note: if he isn't free with this message, just suggest another date. Simple :)

What about if something is blocking him bad?

The second message is interesting, because while the first response is good for a couple of the possible reasons... if he sends replies like this, it's because the thing that is blocking him is BIG! This might be out of your control.

Something is blocking him from moving forward.

You might get a response like this...

Hey _____
I've been thinking, we've wanted to catch up for such a long time, so if you're serious let's do it!
I'm not the kind of girl that waits around forever. I'm free _____ if you are. Does drinks sound good?

Hey! Sorry about my absence, there's something I need to tell you about...

He might not suggest to meet up in this case, and if so I'm sorry.

The reality is, that he's got some issues going on, or maybe even a partner or some heavy issues relating to an ex. You might realise now that you really don't want to be involved anyway.

If this is the case, you've learned a new lesson and you got your answer.

What if he isn't that into me...?

This is the thing that most of us are scared off. The rejection of the situation. Let me ask you this, though... is he rejecting you or telling you that you're better off finding a guy who is in a better position than him?

3.

He's just not that into you

You might get a response like this...

Hey _____
I've been thinking, we've wanted to catch up for such a long time, so if you're serious let's do it!
I'm not the kind of girl that waits around forever. I'm free _____ if you are. Does drinks sound good?

Hey, I didn't know how else to say this but I think you're really cool but...

This guy might explain why he's not that into you, but don't take it too seriously.

Emotions don't really explain a clear picture of what's actually going on inside a person's head. People buy with emotion and justify with logic. Best thing to do here is to realize that he's done you a huge favor by ending things. It is also good to get a bit of feedback here if you can read between the lines of what he's trying to say.

What if he doesn't reply...

One of the most painful things is if he doesn't reply... because then it just keeps you guessing even more.

Hey _____
I've been thinking, we've wanted to catch up for such a long time, so if you're serious let's do it!
I'm not the kind of girl that waits around forever. I'm free _____ if you are. Does drinks sound good?

You know what, it sucks but if you wait 3 days and he doesn't reply then you have your answer. He's a guy who has clearly a lot going on his life, and you've forced him to make a choice.

I don't say this lightly at all, but a guy who can't even reply to a message like this is really not worth your time. Sure we are all human, and we all make mistakes. God knows I've made plenty of mistakes in my time, but that's what makes us learn.

You've just learned a valuable lesson here as well and more importantly, you built courage. Courage to stand up for what you want and to express yourself even when things feel a bit awkward. We live in a society where it is easy to switch off and to be part of the crowd. It takes a lot to even send something that expresses yourself and makes yourself feel vulnerable.

To that I commend you. I really hope you've enjoyed this quick guide.

I really hope this guide has been of some help and I thank you as a friend and as your coach for your time!

This guide is something that I spent a while working with people, collaborating with others and understanding that weird and crazy phenomena called ghosting!
