REPORT ON THE AFRIGROWTH YOUTH MENTORING ROUND OFF CEREMONY ON 25TH
JUNE 2008 IN LAGOS

Wednesday 25th June 2008, 21 Mentees from Lagos and Abuja gathered at our lady of Apostle Conference Centre in Maryland Lagos, for the AfriGrowth Foundation Youth Mentoring round off ceremony. The round off ceremony which is in two parts also had the debriefing workshop where each mentee gave a brief summary of their experiences during the program and what they learnt during the course of the program. In attendance were One of the members of the board of trustees of AfriGrowth Foundation Mrs. Eniola Yonwuren, Mr. Demola Aladekomo MD Chams Nig Plc, sponsors of the Youth Mentoring Program, Mrs. Otukoya, Mrs. Amy Oyekunle Executive Director KIND Foundation, 2007 Finalist of AfriGrowth National Essay Competition, Mentee Alumni, Mr. Charles Onyekator Resource person from NLNG, and members of the press.

The ceremony commenced proper with the registration of all mentees and invited guests. Mrs Keshi welcomed all mentees and invited guest to the event. This was followed by mentees introducing themselves and gave information about what they know of their partners during the program.

Mentees later shared their experiences during the mentoring program with their mentors. The following are some of their comments: Temitayo Olofinlua mentored by Mrs. Amy Oyekunle "The end of the mentoring programme for me is the beginning of greater discovery. I know that I am not limited in anyway. AfriGrowth has given me the opportunity to see through Mrs. Oyekunle eyes and helped me to stand steadily on her shoulder to project and get a better view of my future. My mentor taught me that for anything you need in life you must have passion" Eyinade Adedotun mentored by Dr. Reuben Abati "My mentor emphasized on public exposure, learnt about diligence and hardwork which was seen in the way he works. My mentor put his life on the canvas for me and also taught me practical lessons about being street wise" Tolu Olugboji mentored by Mr. Demola Aladekomo "my mentor taught me about value for living, he taught me to get the things that matter right and every other things will follow" Tolu Oluokun mentored by Amb. Joe Keshi "learnt the need to have the virtue of patience and perseverance if you want something good in life. Taught me the reason to be hardworking. I saw that public servants are actually hardworking and not lazy" Chinwe Achor mentored by Mrs. Eugenia Abu "my mentor had time for me ,taught me principles about life, that some little things i overlook are important. Taught me how to be patient and passionatet and that I should also be curious".

Mrs. Amy Oyekunle one of the mentors charged the mentees with the following " Mentoring is not about copying, mentoring is not about age but about someone you can learn something from, what is important is how much of yourself you are able to impact on another person. To be young is not a disease but an opportunity, mentees should not loose sight of the fact that they exist for a purpose".

Mrs. Otukoya a strong supporter of AfriGrowth Orphan and Vulnerable Children Care (OVC) program charged the mentees that for Nigeria to be great there should be a change of attitude by our leaders and the Youths alike. She told the mentees that it is their generation that will build Nigeria.
