Kennedy warns ignorance in foreign policy handicaps nation-s security

Dallas –AP– President Kennedy lashed out at Sen Barry Goldwater R–Ariz and other republicans who he said –confuse rhetoric with reality–

Visiting an area where supporters are booming Goldwater–s chances for the 1964 Republican nomination Kennedy in his prepared speech said that ignorance and misinformation –if allowed to prevail in foreign policy handicaps this country–s security–

Kennedy did not specifically mention Goldwater by name – but there was not doubt he was talking about the Republican senator when he said–

–In a world of complex and continuing problems in a world full of frustrations and irritations America–s leadership must be guided by the lights of learning and reason – – or else those who confuse rhetoric with reality and the plausible with the possible will gain the ascendancy with their seemingly swift and simple solutions to every world problem–

Add- Kennedy

Dallas –AP– Kennedy also took a swipe at Sen Harry F Byrd D–VA and others who have criticized his economic and financial policies

–At a time when the national debt is steadily being reduced in terms of its burden on our economy– he said –they see that debt as the greatest single threat to our security –at a time when we are steadily reducing the number of federal employes [sic] serving every thousand citizens they fear those supposed hordes of civil servants more than the actual hordes of opposing armies–

–We cannot expect that every one to use the phrase of a decade ago will –talk sense to the American people– –but we can hope that fewer people will listen to nonsense – and the notion that this nation is headed for defeat through deficit or that strength is but a matter of slogans is nothing but just plaine [sic] nonsense–
