

Tax Free Income Trust, (2009 SERIES A)

A 2 YEAR UNIT INVESTMENT TRUST

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

The trust seeks to provide interest income, which is generally exempt from regular federal income tax. The possibility of capital growth is a secondary objective. There is no guarantee that the investment objectives of the trust will be achieved.

STRATEGY OF PORTFOLIO SELECTION

The trust seeks to achieve its objectives by investing in a portfolio of the common stock of closed-end investment companies whose portfolios consist primarily of municipal bonds.

DESCRIPTION OF PORTFOLIO

The portfolio of the trust contains 27 issues of common stock of closed-end investment companies.

INCEPTION DATE:	March 24, 2009
TERMINATION DATE:	March 24, 2011
INITIAL OFFER PRICE:	$10.00
MINIMUM INVESTMENT:	$5,000
NUMBER OF SECURITIES:	27
ESTIMATED NET FIRST YEAR DISTRIBUTION PER UNIT:*	$0.8020
DISTRIBUTIONS:*	Monthly
CUSIP (CASH):	831703491
CUSIP (REINVESTMENT):	831703509
TICKER:	TFTRBX

*Distributions, if any, will be made commencing on April 30, 2009. The estimated net annual distribution for the subsequent year is expected to be less than the amount for the first year because a portion of the securities included in the portfolio will be sold during the first year to pay for organization costs and the creation and development fee. Distributions will fluctuate as a result of unitholder redemptions in addition to securities being sold within the portfolio. Distributions are also subject to the ability of issuers to make dividend payments in the future.

RISK CONSIDERATIONS

An investor can lose money by investing in this trust. The trust is not actively managed and will not sell securities in response to ordinary market fluctuations. There is no guarantee that the trust will meet its investment objectives, that the stocks comprising the portfolio will pay dividends or that the unit price will not decline.

Municipal bonds are subject to numerous risks, including higher interest rates, economic recession, deterioration of the municipal bond market, possible downgrades and defaults of interest and/or principal.

In a declining interest-rate environment, the portfolio may generate less income. Additionally, more bonds in an underlying fund may be called by the issuer, which may decrease the overall income potential of the portfolio. In a rising interest-rate environment, bond prices fall.

Closed-end funds are subject to various risks, including management's ability to meet the fund's investment objective, and to manage the fund's portfolio when the underlying securities are redeemed or sold, during periods of market turmoil and as investors' perceptions regarding the funds or their underlying investments change. Unlike open-end funds, which trade at prices based on a current determination of the fund's net asset value, closed-end funds frequently trade at a discount to their net asset value in the secondary market. Certain closed-end funds may employ the use of leverage which increases the volatility of such funds. You will bear not only your share of the trust's expenses, but also those of the underlying funds. By investing in other funds, the trust incurs greater expenses than you would incur if you invested directly in the funds.

Income may be subject to state and local taxes and to the alternative minimum tax (AMT). Future laws could eliminate the tax exemption for municipal income. In addition, certain distributions paid by certain funds may be subject to federal, state and local taxes. Hennion & Walsh and its representatives do not provide tax advice. You should consult your tax adviser for further information on tax implications.

The sponsor may offer successive trusts with similar portfolios thereby allowing the investor to pursue the same strategy over a number of years. Investors should consider their ability to pursue investing in successive trusts, if available. There may be tax consequences associated with investing in the trust and rolling over an investment from one trust to the next.

Investors should consider the trust's investment objective, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information relevant to an investment in the trust. Please read the prospectus carefully before you send money.
