Have a chance to compete and score a Touchdown in a Flag-Football games against classmates one Monday and then the next Monday try your luck at playing a Classmate in Corn Hole. Cornhole, also known as Baggo, is the most popular bag toss game in the United States. No matter if you are an adult or kid, male or female, this sport attracts people from all ages and gender. It's often played with friends and family in the backyard, but don't get me wrong, this is not just an ordinary family bag toss game, there are many tournaments being held nationwide every year. Students will learn how to play and keep score with others. During Flag- Football Games kids will work together, demonstrating good sportsmanship while practicing their throwing, catching and fleeing skills.
