Look no further

Whether you lost track of your NS&I investments while moving home, or are on the trail of an account opened for you as a child, our Tracing Service can reunite you with your money.

So far we've reunited over 300,000 people with over £650 million. The service is free to use and there are no time limits when making a claim. So whenever you come looking, we'll be here to help you rediscover your savings.

All your money is 100% safe with NS&I

Always. Your savings remain with us, registered in the original customer's name and backed by HM Treasury. By using our free Tracing Service we can help you reclaim your money even if we've lost touch with you over the years.

What happens if we haven't heard from you for a while

When we lose touch with a customer, for example when mail is returned undelivered, we stop sending any more correspondence. If we can't find a new address and nobody gets in touch with us, we continue to protect the funds and keep all personal details confidential.

Tracing Premium Bonds

Keep in touch

The best way to avoid losing track of any accounts or investments you have with NS&I is to let us know whenever you change your address (or name).

If we know your contact details are up to date, we can keep you informed about any savings you have with us.

For your protection

When someone gets in touch with us to track down any savings and investments we won't repay any funds until we have thoroughly verified any new details.

All new claims and requests are checked to see if they are genuinely from a customer or from someone legally entitled to act on their behalf, eg under a Power of Attorney.

Two ways to check

Already know you're with NS&I? Simply get in touch

If you know for certain you have some savings or investments with us but have lost your records, all you need to do is write to us with all your details.

Not so sure? Use the Tracing Service

If you're not so certain and think you might have an account or investment with us, you can use our Tracing Service.

Checking for outstanding Premium Bonds prizes is one of the most frequent requests we receive.

If you have any Premium Bonds, and have changed your address but not yet told us, you may have won a prize that you don't know about.

Already know you have some Premium Bonds? Simply get in touch

You don't need to use our Tracing Service. When you write to us, it will help if you have any of the following proof:

- A holder's number
- An NS&I number
- The Bond or the Bond record
- When and where you bought your Premium Bonds
- How much they are worth
- New details, eg your current address

Write to us at:

NS&I Sunderland SR43 2SB

Once we've checked and confirmed your proof and new details we'll update our records and check whether you have any unclaimed prizes.

Check for prizes online

You can use our prize checker to see if you have any unclaimed prizes. You'll find it on our website. Or download our free prize checker app through iTunes or Google Play. All you need is your holder's number which you'll find on any Bonds you hold.

Why not register for our online and phone service? You can then choose to have any future prizes you might win paid directly into your bank account. You'll need to have an email address so that we can contact you if you win. It's a faster, safer and more convenient way to receive your prizes. See our website to find out more.

Unclaimed prizes

There's no time limit for claiming prizes, however, any Premium Bonds held by someone who has died can remain in prize draws for up to 12 months after the date of death. After that, the Bonds are no longer eligible to win prizes.

Tracing savings and investments

Some of our older savings and investments like Capital Bonds haven't been on sale for many years. Not to worry, if you think you have funds with us we can help you trace even some of our oldest savings and investments, and tell you their current value.

Of course we'll need to check first whether they've already been cashed in!

This website is in association with UK Finance and the Building Societies Association (BSA). This means you can also use it to trace old accounts with other providers, as well as NS&I. If you want to trace accounts from another bank or building society without using the internet, there is a list of useful contacts on page 6.

Applying for other people

You can only ask for a trace for someone else if you are legally entitled to act on their behalf, for example under a Power of Attorney or as an Executor. If you want to ask for a trace for more than one person, you'll need to make a separate application for each one.

Please call us for more information on how to trace someone else's accounts or investments.

Use a separate form for each person's savings. We can send you more forms or you can download them from our website.

What happens next

After you apply, we'll contact you if we need any more information or documents.

We aim to confirm any accounts or investments within a month of the date we receive your application, but it may take longer at busy times so please bear with us.
