

YWCA Career Women of Achievement Awards

2022 Nominations are now being accepted for our 43rd Year

The YWCA's mission is to eliminate racism and empower women.

The YWCA is proud to celebrate 43 years of showcasing the accomplishments of Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky's most successful and accomplished career women. We invite you to submit a nomination and give a deserving career woman the opportunity to win one of the most prestigious awards in Cincinnati. In our ongoing efforts to empower women, we are piloting a revision to our nominations requirements this year. We acknowledge that achievement comes in many forms and will now allow self-nominations supported by an endorsement. With this change it is our goal to encourage women to advocate for themselves and also recognize that women make impressive professional achievements in all kinds of businesses and organizations.

Eight women will be named Career Women of Achievement for the year 2022 by an independent panel of judges. Nominations are due in early December, will be reviewed and selected in January, and the honorees will be notified immediately.

The eight women selected as the 2022 honorees will be recognized during the YWCA Career Women of Achievement TV broadcast/online stream to be aired Spring 2022.
