Portrait of a
Mehlville School District Graduate

CREATIVE & CRITICAL THINKER - SELF AWARE - PERSISTENT - COMMUNICATOR - ETHICAL & GLOBAL

Scroll down or click on the words in the above graphic to learn more about each attribute.

Graphic design created by Oakville High students Madeline Schroeder and Madison Talley, Class of 2018.

Portrait of a Mehlville School District Graduate

The Mehlville School District wants every graduate to possess a wide range of values and skills that will lead to successful professional and personal lives. Among those skills and values are:

Creative and Critical Thinker

- Approaches problem solving opportunities with an independent and curious mind

- Gathers and assesses relevant information

- Generates, shares, and connects ideas to find solutions

- Challenges assumptions objectively

- Listens and reflects

Mehlville School District
Individually Focused. Committed to All.

Portrait of a
Mehlville School District Graduate

The Mehlville School District wants every graduate to possess a wide range of values and skills that will lead to successful professional and personal lives. Among those skills and values are:

Self Aware

- Fosters and appreciates meaningful relationships

- Embraces a balance of certainty and uncertainty

- Adopts realistic goals and expectations

- Uses introspection to consciously and continuously evaluate strengths, skills, and values

- Perceives the impact of personal behavior

Portrait of a
Mehlville School District Graduate

The Mehlville School District wants every graduate to possess a wide range of values and skills that will lead to successful professional and personal lives. Among those skills and values are:

Persistent

- Develops a growth mindset
- Recognizes when failure is an opportunity
- Adapts to change
- Seeks resources for support
- Maintains a positive attitude

Portrait of a
Mehlville School District Graduate

The Mehlville School District wants every graduate to possess a wide range of values and skills that will lead to successful professional and personal lives. Among those skills and values are:

Communicator

- Explores and exchanges ideas in multiple formats

- Speaks and writes with poise, organization, purpose, and context

- Listens actively, acknowledging and understanding different viewpoints

- Provides and accepts feedback

- Cultivates interpersonal skills

![Mehlville School District — Individually Focused. Committed to All.]

Portrait of a
Mehlville School District Graduate

The Mehlville School District wants every graduate to possess a wide range of values and skills that will lead to successful professional and personal lives. Among those skills and values are:

Ethical & Global Citizen

- Exhibits integrity, honesty, and empathy

- Recognizes and respects diversity

- Demonstrates personal, social, and civic responsibility

- Embraces environmental stewardship

- Contributes to solutions that benefit the broader community