CUNYfirst NEWS

CUNYfirst adds School of Professional Studies

On March 25, 2015, CUNYfirst launched Student Administrative tools (Campus Solutions) for the School of Professional Studies. With this CUNYfirst launch, 20 CUNY Colleges and more than 272,200 students will be using the Campus Solutions tools.

We congratulate everyone at the School of Professional Studies and wish them well as they transition students, faculty and staff to their new tools.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Malcolm Phillips - From Soldier to Art Student

After serving two tours in the U.S. Marine Corps in Afghanistan, Malcolm Phillips found the support for his transition from soldier to art student at LaGuardia Community College. This year, the veteran was awarded a scholarship from The Posse Foundation to continue his baccalaureate studies in studio art. "My dream is to inspire others who've been to places that I've been," Malcolm said. With CUNY and the Posse scholarship, Malcolm said he has been given an opportunity he might not have gotten before.

CUNY Dreamers Conference

Register now for the second annual CUNY Dreamers Conference on Friday, Nov. 20, at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. This free event will bring undocumented students from around the country to celebrate their success and continue their undeterred fight for a more inclusive higher education system.

Construction Food Challenge

A combination design competition and charity food drive, Construction, challenges teams of architects to build large structures made entirely out of unopened cans of food. After winners are chosen, cans will be donated to City Harvest for distribution. On display through Monday, Nov. 16. Brookfield Place Winter Garden, 230 Vesey St.
