The New York State Thruway Authority (Authority) is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer that is committed to diversity and inclusion in the workplace. The Authority prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind based on age, race, color, sex, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, pregnancy, prior arrest and conviction records, youthful offender adjudications, or any other protected characteristic as outlined by federal, state, or local laws.

This policy applies to all employment practices within the Authority, including hiring, recruiting, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, leave of absence, compensation, benefits and training. The Authority makes hiring decisions based solely on qualifications, merit and business needs at the time. The Authority is committed to working with and providing reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation because of a disability for any part of the employment process, please call (518) 471-4321, or send an email to EEO-Diversity@thruway.ny.gov.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Applicants should retain a copy of this page for their records.

Additional Testing Required for Certain Positions: Physical/medical examinations and/or drug and alcohol tests may be required for certain positions. Failure to participate in any required examinations and/or tests will negatively affect your employment eligibility and/or status.

Former State/Authority or Local Government Retirees: Section 150 of the Civil Service Law of New York State prohibits retired State/Authority or local employees from being rehired by the State/Authority or a political subdivision and receiving pension benefits while employed unless an exemption exists. Applicants who are receiving service retirement benefits from New York State, Municipal or Political Subdivision Retirement System are subject to Section 211 or 212 of the Retirement and Social Security Law to protect their current service benefits.

Post-Employment Restrictions: Subject to Public Officers Law Section 73, post-employment restrictions apply to all State and Authority employees and officers. Such restrictions apply to part-time and seasonal employees, and apply equally regardless of the duration of employment while with the Authority. For the two year period immediately following separation from service, former State and Authority employees and officers are prohibited from:

- a. Appearing or practicing before their former agency, and
- b. Rendering services for compensation in relation to any case, proceeding, application or other matter before their former agency.

State and Authority employees and officers may also be subject to a "reverse two-year bar" that requires State and Authority employees and officers to recuse themselves from matters involving their former private sector employers for two years after entering State/Authority service.

The "lifetime bar" prohibits former State and Authority employees and officers from working on any specific matter in which the former employee was directly concerned and personally participated, or on any other matter which was under the former employee's active consideration as a State/Authority employee.
