Seeking housing assistance

Housing Connect is where people go for housing assistance and support. It provides one assessment for everything from emergency accommodation to a long-term home. Housing Connect services help low income Tasmanians in need to find or keep safe, appropriate affordable housing.

How can Housing Connect help me?

Housing Connect will help you if you are:

- Homeless or at risk of being homeless
- Living in unsafe housing or you cannot stay where you normally live
- A safety risk to yourself or others or there is a third party threat to you or your household

Housing Connect can also help if you are:

- Having trouble paying your rent or bond
- Moving and having trouble paying the costs
- Living in a place that makes it hard for you or makes your health or mobility worse
- Unable to pay for your own housing

What sort of housing assistance can I get?

If you need somewhere safe to stay immediately or short-term, Housing Connect can help you find somewhere safe.

If you are having trouble getting or keeping your housing or you need medium-longer term help, Housing Connect can assess you for help with:

- Paying your rent, paying your bond or moving costs in the private rental market
- Social housing
- Supported accommodation
- Buying a house

How will Housing Connect assess me?

Housing Connect will talk to you about the reasons you need help. They will ask about where you are living and the circumstances that caused you to need help. They will talk to you about your family situation and any other people who may need help including children or people you are caring for or who care for you.

Housing Connect will collect this information and use it to provide advice on the sort of housing assistance you need.

Housing Connect will assess your housing needs using a Housing Assessment Prioritisation System (HAPS). HAPS makes sure people with the greatest or most urgent needs are helped first because of their safety, if they are homeless, suffering ill-health or mobility problems and how much the rent is compared to their income.

The information you provide will help to make sure you can get the housing and support that matches your needs as quickly as possible in your circumstances.

What help can I get immediately?

You can call Housing Connect on 1800 800 588 or you can go to one of the five outlets in Tasmania.

There are many people in crisis who need emergency accommodation. There is not enough emergency accommodation for all the people who need it. This means it may not always be possible to get this help. Housing Connect will always do everything they can to help.
