7 General information
Partial transfer	Subscribers must transfer the same proportion from each of the notional account balances, with the exception of the CLB. For example, if 50% of the CESG is transferred, then 50% of all other notional account balances (with the exception of the CLB), must also be transferred. Subscribers can choose to transfer all, some or none of the CLB. (Refer to section 9 - Eligible partial transfer).
Transfer form	The transfer form consists of three parts. Part A is completed by the subscriber to request the transfer and is kept by the receiving promoter. Part B is completed by the receiving promoter and is sent to the relinquishing promoter along with a copy of the completed Part A and Annex 1 (as applicable). Part C is completed by the relinquishing promoter and is sent to the receiving promoter along with Annex 1 (as applicable).
8 Transfer policies
A to B transfer Additional CESG	If the receiving promoter does not offer the Additional CESG, and there is Additional CESG in the relinquishing RESP, the receiving promoter must agree prior to the transfer to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Administer the rules of the Additional CESG defined under the Canada Education Savings Regulations;</li> <li>and</li> <li>• Report the presence of the Additional CESG in the RESP in subsequent transfers.</li> </ul> If the receiving promoter does not agree, all the Basic and Additional CESG in the relinquishing RESP must be repaid prior to the transfer. Note: Repayment of the CESG will result in the loss of the beneficiary's grant room, which cannot be restored.
Pre-transfer repayment	If one or more of the following grants or bond held in the relinquishing RESP cannot be transferred, the grant(s) and/or bond that makes the transfer ineligible must be repaid in full prior to the transfer, regardless if it is a full or partial transfer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG)*</li> <li>• Canada Learning Bond (CLB)</li> <li>• Saskatchewan Advantage Grant for Education Savings (SAGES)</li> <li>• British Columbia Training and Education Savings Grant (BCTESG)</li> </ul> *Additional CESG: See the A to B transfer policy above regarding the transfer of the Additional CESG to a non-offering promoter.  The CLB can remain in the relinquishing RESP if the subscriber does not wish to transfer it. Note: Repayment of the grant(s) will result in the loss of the beneficiary's grant room, which cannot be restored, except for the CLB.
9 Transfer eligibility information
Accumulated income payment	If an accumulated income payment has been made from the relinquishing RESP, the transfer is not permitted under the Income Tax Act .
Eligible partial transfers	If less than all of the property, other than the property in a CLB account, held in connection with an RESP is transferred to another RESP, the assisted contributions, unassisted contributions, CESG, any amount paid under a designated provincial program and accumulated income are considered to be transferred in the same proportion as the value of the property transferred is to the total value of the property, other than the value of the property in a CLB account, in the RESP at the time of the transfer.
Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG) Basic and Additional CESG	The following conditions must be satisfied for an eligible transfer of the CESG: (1) (a) The relinquishing and receiving RESPs have a common beneficiary. or (b) A beneficiary named in the relinquishing RESP is a brother or sister of a beneficiary in the receiving RESP. and The receiving RESP is a family plan. or (c) A beneficiary named in the relinquishing RESP is a brother or sister of a beneficiary in the receiving RESP. and The receiving RESP is an individual (non-family) plan. and The beneficiary named in the receiving RESP was under 21 years of age when the receiving RESP was entered into. (2) (a) The receiving RESP is an individual (non-family) plan or a family plan in which all beneficiaries are siblings (no cousins). or (b) No Additional CESG has been paid into the relinquishing RESP. (3) The receiving RESP complies with all conditions applicable to registering Education Savings Plans (ESPs) since January 1, 1999, as required by the Income Tax Act. (4) The receiving promoter must have a valid agreement with ESDC to offer the CESG. See also: A to B transfer policy above about transferring Additional CESG to a non-offering promoter.

Canada Learning Bond (CLB)	Unlike the CESG and the provincial incentives, the CLB does not need to be transferred in the same proportion as other grants being transferred.
