Drug conviction

Not yet available for 2020-21

Presented if student has attended college and received federal aid.

- If yes, the student will be asked whether he or she had a drug conviction for an offense that occurred while he or she was receiving federal student aid. If the answer is yes, a worksheet is provided to help determine whether the conviction affects eligibility for federal student aid.

The screenshot shows a 'Student Eligibility Worksheet' interface. It has a navigation bar with tabs: Student Information, School Selection, Dependency Status, Parent Information, Financial Information, and Sign & Submit. The 'STUDENT INFORMATION' tab is active. A question asks: 'Have you ever received federal student aid?' with radio buttons for 'Yes' and 'No'. Below this is the 'Eligibility Worksheet' section with a question: 'Have you been convicted for the possession or sale of illegal drugs for an offense that occurred while you were receiving federal student aid grants, work-study, or loan awards?' with radio buttons for 'Yes' and 'No'. A blue information box below explains that based on the answers, the system determines eligibility for federal student aid and that if convicted of possession or selling drugs, the student must notify the financial aid administrator at their college immediately. 'PREVIOUS' and 'NEXT' buttons are at the bottom right.
