Philadelphia Queen Village

Mannington Nashville Queen Village

When Syneos Health set about increasing its presence in the UK, they acquired premises with a 10 year lease and space for approximately 350 people. The company was after carpet flooring that looked welcoming, but was tough enough to stand the test of time and Amtico Carpet proved the ideal choice.

The company settled on Philadelphia Queen Village carpet which worked effectively alongside the complementary tones of Mannington Nashville Queen Village, which was used for zoning in the space to create designated meeting areas. The result is a warm, open-plan environment with areas that flow naturally into one another.

Bold statements. Big ideas. What our clients say.

“One of the reasons we selected Amtico Carpet was because we needed a long-lasting flooring product.

“When it comes to the look of the space we’re delighted with the results. Our idea was to introduce colour into the space by way of Syneos Health™’s orange branding rather than through the interior design, so we’re particularly pleased with the way the complementary neutral tones and broken pattern of Amtico’s Philadelphia and Nashville carpets have worked out.

“The white furniture shows up really well in the space, too, and the way in which feature areas have been picked out with the Nashville carpet tiles is extremely effective.”
