

Full-Time Tenure-Track Theatre Faculty Position

The University of Findlay invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in our Theatre department to begin in August 2017 in the College of Liberal Arts. The theatre program offers a Bachelors of Arts in theatre with emphases in performance and in production/design.

The preferred candidate will be a theatre generalist with a terminal degree (M.F.A. or Ph.D.), two years of college teaching experience, and professional acting and directing experience. Candidates will be expected to teach a wide range of undergraduate courses including, but not limited to: Introduction to Theater various levels of Acting and Directing; Theatre Literature; Voice and Movement; and Audition Technique. The workload will include teaching four courses per semester and directing two shows during the academic year.

The successful candidate must be committed to student-centered education and demonstrate the ability to contribute collaboratively to program growth in a variety of capacities including recruitment, curriculum development, and community outreach. Candidates will be expected to demonstrate teaching excellence and engage in scholarly activity, professional development, and service to the university and community.

The University of Findlay has grown from 2,000 to nearly 4,200 undergraduate and graduate students in the last twenty years and is the largest private university in northwest Ohio. Founded in 1882, University of Findlay is a forward-looking private university that is constantly seeking ways to better serve students and the community. The University is committed to the education of a diverse student body and enrolls students from nearly 40 nations and most US states. Consistently ranked in the top tier of Midwestern universities in U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges," the University has also been regularly recognized as one of the region's best by Princeton Review. Institutional Research and Evaluation Inc., an independent research organization specializing in higher education, recently named it as one of "America's Best Private Colleges." The University has also been recognized as one of the best colleges in the nation for which to work by The Chronicle of Higher Education. For more information about the University of Findlay, visit <https://www.findlay.edu/about-uf/>.

The City of Findlay, just south of Toledo and located approximately 1.5 hours from Columbus, Dayton and Detroit, has been designated a "dreamtown" by Demographics Daily, repeatedly named one of the top 20 micropolitan areas (small towns) in the United States by Site Selection magazine and is the only municipality in Ohio to be selected three times as one of the 100 Best Communities for Young People by America's Promise.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled. The UF Employment Application may be found on the website at:

<https://www.findlay.edu/offices/businessaffairs/humanresources/Open-Positions>. For optimal consideration for this exciting opportunity, send a cover letter highlighting the reasons for applying for the position; current Curriculum Vitae; a statement of teaching philosophy; the names and contact information of three professional references; and a complete Faculty Application to: Human Resources, The University of Findlay, 1000 N. Main Street Findlay, Ohio 45840. Materials may also be emailed to HR@findlay.edu. Make sure to indicate that the application is for the "Tenure-Track Theatre - 2016250" position. The University of Findlay is an equal opportunity employer and educator. For more information on The University of Findlay, visit <http://www.findlay.edu>.

The University of Findlay is an Equal Opportunity Employer/Affirmative Action Employer/
Male/Female/Disabled/Vet.