Investment Agreement of Amicus Investment Ltd Special Terms and Conditions

Amicus Investment Ltd (hereinafter called “Amicus”) agrees to pay to its clients (hereinafter called “account holder”) both the invested capital and the agreed return for the period they have been invested in Amicus investment products. Investments can be made in all major currencies and the return is the same despite of the currency choice.

The investment products under Amicus Investment Agreement are Amicus Regular Savings Plan and Amicus Single Investment Plan. Minimum investment to Amicus Regular Savings Plan is 100 USD or currency equivalent and to Amicus Single Investment Plan accordingly 5,000 USD or currency equivalent. Amicus Investment Agreement can be signed up both by private individuals and companies.

Amicus Cash Account – Non-interest bearing transactions account

All account holders who signed up the Amicus Investment Agreement have Cash Account as their main account. Cash Account works also as a transactions account showing the transaction history of the account holder’s Investment Agreement with Amicus. All investments made will first be booked to Cash Account and then transferred to the chosen Fixed Term Account on the date we receive the relevant funds from the client. Payments made for Regular Savings Plans will accordingly be transferred into the Plan Account on the last day of the relevant month.

There is no interest payable to Cash Account. Transfers into the Cash Account can be made on any banking day. Withdrawals from Cash Account will be paid to the account holder’s bank account within five banking days from the receipt of the withdrawal request. Clients can also request payments to be made to an International Payment Card account linked to their Cash Account. The number of withdrawals from Cash Account is unlimited and free of charge.

Investment products available under Amicus Single Investment Plan:

Amicus Bonus Cash Account with 3.00% Annual Return plus Bonus interest 1.00% per annum

The interest is counted on the daily balance and added to the account balance annually on the 31st December. The bonus interest is counted on average quarterly balance and added to the account balance annually on the 31st December. The new investment period on this account starts on the date when the client’s funds have been received.

The number of withdrawals from Bonus Cash Account is unlimited and free of charge. Withdrawals from Bonus Cash Account will be paid to the account holder’s bank account within ten days from the receipt of the withdrawal request. Clients can also request payments to be made to an International Payment Card account linked to their Bonus Cash Account.
