Derek Jeter knows that it is important for young people to develop themselves with the help of positive role models. As such, he maintains a sound and healthy body, is committed to community service, and promotes the importance of good education. Describe ways in which you, as a Jeter's Leader, will serve as a positive role model within your school and community, and describe how you will make a difference in the lives of younger children and your peers. Be sure to include what you consider to be your personal strengths and weaknesses.

JETER'S LEADERS AGREEMENT

I agree to the following guidelines and expectations established by the Turn 2 Foundation and the Jeter's Leaders Program:

- To be a role model for other students
- To stay drug and alcohol free
- To maintain a 3.0 (B) GPA or better
- To display appropriate behavior and demonstrate respect for myself and others
- To fully participate in the Jeter's Leaders meetings, activities and trips; I understand that there are mandatory meetings, activities and trips that require my full participation and if I fail to fully participate, it will lead to my immediate dismissal
- To contribute my ideas and suggestions for developing new activities and social change projects; I will participate in planning and implementing these ideas
- To meet individually with the Director twice a year and review my grades. I give permission for staff to obtain report cards or transcripts from my school

JETER'S LEADERS

Jeter's Leaders is a leadership development program created to empower, recognize, and enhance the skills of high school students who

- Promote healthy lifestyles, free of alcohol and substance abuse,
- Achieve academically,
- Are committed to improving their community through social change activities,
- Serve as role models to younger students and deliver positive messages to their peers.

TURN 2 FOUNDATION, INC.

Derek Jeter, captain and shortstop of the New York Yankees, established the Turn 2 Foundation in 1996. Since its inception, the Foundation has awarded more than $20 million to create and support signature programs and activities that motivate young people to turn away from drugs and alcohol and "TURN 2" healthy lifestyles.

Through these ventures, the Foundation strives to create outlets that promote academic excellence, leadership development and positive behavior. These programs all share the same goal of helping today's youth become the leaders of tomorrow.
