EQUIP YOURSELF TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE THROUGH EDUCATION

Develop the tools you need to impact students' lives through the power of learning. The program prepares you to:

- Apply research methodology in designing and evaluating research studies in higher education.
- Apply theories and principles of organizational behavior, governance, and leadership to operations within the profession of higher education.
- Integrate assessment theory and methods along with institutional mission, values, goals, and objectives to evaluate specific higher education programs.
- Contribute to the profession by making reasoned decisions informed by historical underpinnings and relevant theory in the performance of service and engaging in applied scholarship.
- Assess cultural, individual, and role differences of various constituent and stakeholder groups that constitute the entire higher education community.

CURRICULUM

The curriculum emphasizes present-day issues in higher education, including how multicultural and diversity issues affect student development, and how technology, public policy, and financing issues affect students' access to college. Courses are reviewed and revised regularly by industry experts to ensure they reflect the most recent developments in the field of education.

COURSES

- Foundations of Higher Education
- Higher Education Laws and Regulations
- Higher Education Organization and Governance
- Multiculturalism and Diversity in Higher Education
