

Candy Connection

Description of Program:

Candy Ice breaker Game:

Once the entire group is in the room I will walk around with a bowl of candy and ask them to take between one and three pieces. Following that we will go around the room and they have to say their name and a fact about themselves that matches up with the amount of candy they took. This game is a good way for everyone in the room to get a feel for who is around them, and possibly introduce similar interests and traits between other people in the room.

Can You Guess That Candy Bar? :

I will ask the room to get into groups of two or three with someone they don't know. Each group will get voting ballots. Then they have to look at the insides of different candy bars and together they have to determine what candy bar they are looking at. This game is important because it requires teamwork and problem solving. It is a great way to get to know new people.

M&M Grouping Game:

Next I will get a bag of M&Ms and ask each person to take one. Then they will get into groups that match their color. Each color is given a specific topic.

Red: Favorite Hobbies

Green: Favorite foods

Yellow: favorite movies

Orange: favorite places to travel

Brown: most memorable or embarrassing moment

Blue: Wild card candy (share a random fact)

Each participant will go around the group and answer the topic their group has been given. Then they will be asked to share as a group the most interesting thing they learned about one of their members.

Slogan Game:

The room will be asked to get into new groups with people they haven't worked with yet. They will be asked to get into groups of five. This game tests the memory of each member. They will work as a team to fill in the candy that corresponds with its correct slogan.

For example:

Crispety, Crunchety, peanut buttery: Butterfinger

Gimme a Break: Kit Kat

Candy Bar Personality Test:

In a bowl there will be candy of many types. There will be Baby Ruth, 3 Musketeers, Butterfingers, Snickers, Hershey's Almond Joy, Reeses, Twix, and Twizzlers. After each person chooses their favorite out of the bowl, I will reveal their personality based off of which candy they picked.
